January 10, 2016
The Feast of the Baptism of the Lord
Luke 3:15-16, 21-22

“After all the people had been baptized and Jesus also had been baptized . . .”

When Mary was pregnant she made the eighty mile trip from Nazareth to the town of Bethany to visit her elderly cousin Elizabeth, who was also pregnant. When Mary greeted Elizabeth she reported that the child in her womb leaped for joy. Approximately thirty years later, Mary's child Jesus made the same eighty mile journey to visit Elizabeth's child, John, called “The Baptist.” He was in the desert challenging people to “prepare the way of the Lord, make straight his path.” The two were aware of their separate roles in God's plan for the salvation of mankind. Jesus asked John to baptize him with water. John resisted, but Jesus insisted. John knew that Jesus would baptize those who followed him with “fire and the Spirit.” As Catholics, we were baptized “In the name of the Father, and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit” in the presence of the flame of the Paschal Candle lit from the New Fire at the Easter Vigil, and received the “flame of faith to be kept alive in our hearts.” Have we kept that flame of faith alive? Does it shine in our lives?
