

District Commander Rick Kyle

Commander Rick Kyle joined the Denver Police Department in 1996. During his 22-year career, Commander Kyle has served in numerous assignments, including Commander of the Community Relations Division and the Training Division, Assistant Director of Training, Lieutenant in District Two and the Conduct Review Office, Sergeant in District Six, and Field Training Officer in District Four.

A strong believer in community engagement, Commander Kyle is committed to meaningful partnerships between the police and the community we serve. During his free time, Commander Kyle enjoys spending time with his wife and children and watching his daughter and son at their sporting events.

HOW TO GET INVOLVED IN YOUR COMMUNITY

Community group involvement keeps you informed about the specific issues and important events in your neighborhood. Crime prevention in your specific neighborhood can be molded by your active roll in the decision making process often spearheaded by organized neighborhood associations.

The Citizen's Advisory Board (CAB) meeting is designed for your community. Not only do you hear about the statistics for the entire district, you also get to ask the Commander your specific questions. It's a great opportunity to meet your local Denver Police officers, while staying informed.

District 3 CAB meetings are held at 6PM on the 1st Tuesday of each month at the district station (excluding holidays). Meeting reminders are posted on Nextdoor.com.

Community Resource Officers

Community Resource Officers (CRO) provide assistance on issues such as neighbor disputes, public nuisances, zoning issues, fraud and crime prevention, and other neighborhood concerns. They attend regular neighborhood organization meetings and provide training on issues such as neighborhood watch, commercial and home security, gang awareness, crime prevention, and much more.
