GOD'S CALL OR YOURS?

Emil Preaching

GAL 1:1-4 "MESSAGE BIBLE"

My authority for writing to you does not come from any popular vote of the people, nor does it come through the appointment of some human higher-up. It comes directly from Jesus the Messiah and God the Father, who raised him from the dead. I'm God-commissioned.

You are directly CALLED, ORDAINED and SENT by God, lest any man (woman) should want to seize the opportunity to do this. Rom 10:14, 15 "How then shall they call on Him in whom they have not believed? And how shall they believe in Him of whom they have not heard?"

And how shall they hear without a preacher? And how shall they preach unless they are sent? Matthew 28:19-20, here JESUS directly sends all who have read and heard this passage and through God given faith (Rom 12:3), to obey Him.

JESUS CHRIST is and will remain the only Mediator in all things and the only Chief Commander of the Armies of the Lord (Joshua 5:14) with the sole right to call, ordain and give the freedom to go in His name. The reason why satan entices people and especially religious leaders to assume God's role to tell you how to comport your life for JESUS, is a subtle attack from the evil one to put lack of confidence in you and detain you from being used for God. People do this because of cowardice, inferiority complexes, selfish ambitions and their need of your money which supports their establishment. This stifles your preparedness for a "die to self-attitude" and obedience in taking up your cross daily and following JESUS CHRIST.

Arnold & Emi_I

There is only one condition which God requires as stipulated throughout His entire Word, clearly stating that the only license and authority we have received from the Lord through and by which we must take part in His Kingdom is but by FAITH. ROM 12:3 "For God has given a measure of faith to every person." Rom 14:23 "For whatever is not from faith is sin." Which means that which is of faith, is obedience to His Great Commission to GO and not to STAY!

Isaiah 6:8 "Also I heard the voice of the Lord, saying: "Whom, and who will go for Us?" Then I said, "Here am I! Send me."

ATTEMPT TO BOYCOTT A CALLING

FROM THE PERSONAL EXPERIENCE OF SOMEONE - 2014:

From the Bible I understand that it is Jesus who calls and appoints someone to His service. I read it over and again where Paul says he is called of God, not of man. However, some pastors/leaders believe that Paul was only commissioned into God's service (Acts 13) when the believers at Antioch laid hands on him. This is annulled earlier on in Acts as its plain to see that Paul was already in ministry before he went to Antioch. If anything, perhaps it was the Holy Spirit getting Paul to move on again, else maybe he would've been stuck in teaching at Antioch instead of practically executing the task to which the Lord JESUS CHRIST called him (Acts 20:24). I don't dispute the importance of the laying on of hands, but this is for the impartation of spiritual gifts, a blessing, instead of people giving permission for someone to serve the Lord. I believe God uses people in leadership to recognize gifting and disciple others, and I certainly see the importance of a young believer heeding the advice of a father in the faith...

BUT HERE'S WHERE I DIFFER: As a missions mobilizer I can't in good conscience stand in front of aspirant missionaries and tell them that, should they feel called to missions, they may only go to the mission field if their pastor recognizes this call on their lives. I've seen too many instances of pastors/leaders either not being into missions or not wanting to lose someone in their church who is valuable (also financially) the leader discouraging and assuming sole control to release someone into the ministry. In fact, I believe

I have fallen foul of this kind of control more than once before in my life. I'd rather advise the person to do what the Holy Spirit is saying, than presume to tell them that they cannot hear their Father's voice and potentially see them distracted into worldly things. Worst case scenario, I'd rather see them "fall" into the right direction of faith than be scared to heed God's call and end up falling back into some worldly scheme.

COUNTRY WIDE TOUR – OCT / NOV 2014

A five-province tour in the RSA evolved into a country-wide tour as we were invited to the far ends of the Cape Province. I only respond to invites and the number of venues show the great need for children of God to hear real life testimonies of how God sustains you when you live by faith in Him challenging threats in the name of JESUS!

Presentations

Also people want to hear how God operates in the far-off mysterious Amazon Jungle. When people hear how God operates from first hand experiences they join and trust God in this for their own lives.

2014 / 2015 - SOUTH AMERICA - AMAZON JUNGLE

Travel by Canoe

At the present I find myself traveling between cities and the Amazon Jungle venturing amongst the tribes and writing about this to challenge you to give up your life and boldly follow JESUS CHRIST in a fulltime capacity.

All over this newsletter you can see photos of our latest and most recent Amazon group trip where we worked under and amongst the Yine Indians, who live a half an hour away from the unreached Indian tribes whom we constantly
