IMMANUEL BAPTIST CHURCH

"God with us"

Joshua 1:9 "Have I not commanded you? Be strong and courageous. Do not be terrified; do not be discouraged, for the Lord your God will be with you wherever you go."

January 23, 2022

OUR MISSION

To present Christ, crucified and risen

OUR VISION

"To keep our focus on Him, to understand what it means to be obedient, and then live that every day; and to define success not by the number of people that walk through our doors, but rather by those that walk out closer to the Lord."

FROM OUR DAILY BREAD

In an article on mentoring, Hannah Schell explains that mentors need to support, challenge and inspire, but “first, and perhaps foremost, a good mentor sees you. Recognition not in terms of awards or publicity but in the sense of simply ‘being seen,’ is a basic human need.” People need to be recognized, known, and believed in.

In the New Testament, Barnabas, whose name means “Son of Encouragement,” had a knack for “seeing” people around him. In Acts 9, he was willing to give Saul a chance when the other disciples “were all afraid of him” (Acts 9:26). Saul (also called Paul; Acts 13:9) had a history of persecuting believers in Jesus (Acts 8:3), so they didn’t think “he really was a disciple” (Acts 9:26).

Later, Paul and Barnabas had a disagreement over whether to take Mark with them to “visit the believers in all the towns where (they’d) preached” (Acts 15:36). Paul didn’t think it was wise to bring Mark along because he’d deserted them earlier. Interestingly, Paul later asked for Mark’s assistance: “Get Mark and bring him with you, because he is helpful to me in my ministry” (2 Timothy 4:11).

Barnabas took time to “see” both Paul and Mark. Perhaps we’re in Barnabas’ position to recognize potential in another person or we’re that individual in need of a spiritual mentor. May we ask God to lead us to those we can encourage and those who will encourage us.

On January 30th, there will be a special called business meeting right after the worship service. We will be voting on the recommendation from the interim pastor search committee .

Son Seekers 2022 kick off meeting will be on Thursday, January 27th from 12:00 pm—2:00 pm, lunch will be served. Please sign up at the welcome center.
