Saturday : 9:00am – 12:00pm & 1:00pm – 3:30pm
Sunday: 9:00am – 1:30pm

Parish Office is located at:
St. Patrick Church
1046 E. 34th St.
Los Angeles, CA 9001

Important Notice:

We thank everyone for their patience with the church closure due to the COVID-19 quarantine. All Mass intentions for Masses that could not be celebrated at St. Stephen are being offered at Masses celebrated by Father Theodore at St. Michael Abbey.

At the time this bulletin was sent to the printer, the quarantine period was scheduled to be until May 15, so the earliest Masses can start again is Sunday, May 17.

Please pray for all the victims of this disease.

Corpus Christi is Sunday June 14.

It is not yet known whether there will be a procession or not this year since there is still a risk of virus transmission, and there may also not be enough time to make preparations once the church is open again. If a procession does take place, the usual format is:

At the end of the German Mass (approximately 10:00-10:15) there will be a procession on the street in front of the church.

The procession will begin right after Mass has ended, so please arrive early to be in place and ready to proceed.

After the procession, lunch will be available, prepared by the St. Stephen Society.

All flower donations are welcome, and we especially need lots of rose petals, as well as baskets for the children to use. If you have flowers you wish to donate, please bring them early Sunday morning, well before the start of Mass.

Please Note:

All children attending the Corpus Christi Mass who have received their First Communion this year will receive a gift from St. Stephen Church. The children can have received their First Communion at any church, not just St. Stephen, and are encouraged, but not required, to dress in their First Communion outfits.

June 7 – 2nd Collection – Retirement Fund for Archdiocesan Priests

Have you ever wondered what happens to our priests after they retire from teaching, preaching, and serving on a regular basis? Where do they go? Who takes care of them? What do they need?

Like us, they desire rest and have needs for care and medical treatment as they grow older. Unlike most of us, though, their modest salaries were never meant to provide for them after many years of service.

Your gift to the Priest Retirement Fund is a meaningful investment and true blessing for the care and comfort of our spiritual fathers as they enter the later chapters in life.

They deserve nothing less. Visit prfla.org to learn more.

June 28 – 2nd Collection – Peter's Pence (Collection for the Holy Father)

Today is the Peter's Pence Collection, a worldwide collection that supports the charitable works of Pope Francis. Funds from this collection help victims of war, oppression, and natural disasters. Take this opportunity to join with Pope Francis and be a witness of charity to our suffering brothers and sisters. Please be generous today.

For more information, visit www.usccb.org/peters-pence.

Please contact Monika Mohos before or after Sunday Mass for any Mass intentions you would like to request.

The Most Holy Trinity - Sunday after Pentecost

What follows, is an excerpt of a letter written by St. Athanasius to Serapion of Thmuis:

It will not be out of place to consider the ancient tradition, teaching and faith of the Catholic Church, which was revealed by the Lord, proclaimed by the apostles and guarded by the fathers. For upon this faith the Church is built, and if anyone were to lapse from it, he would no longer be a Christian either in fact or in name.

We acknowledge the Trinity, holy and perfect, to consist of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. In this Trinity there is no intrusion of any alien element or of anything from outside, nor is the Trinity a blend of creative and created being. It is a wholly creative and energizing reality, self-consistent and undivided in its active power, for the Father makes all things through the Word and in the Holy Spirit, and in this way the unity of the holy Trinity is preserved. Accordingly, in the Church, one God is preached, one God who is above all things and through all things and in all things. God is above all things as Father, for he is principle and source; he is through all things through the Word; and he is in all things in the Holy Spirit.

Writing to the Corinthians about spiritual matters, Paul traces all reality back to one God, the Father, saying: Now there are varieties of gifts, but the same Spirit; and varieties of service, but the same Lord; and there are varieties of working, but it is the same God who inspires them all in everyone.

Even the gifts that the Spirit dispenses to individuals are given by the Father through the Word. For all that belongs to the Father belongs also to the Son, and so the graces given by the Son in the Spirit are true gifts of the Father. Similarly, when the Spirit dwells in us, the Word who bestows the Spirit is in us too, and the Father is present in the Word. This is the meaning of the text: My Father and I will come to him and make our home with him. For where the light is, there also is the radiance; and where the radiance is, there too are its power and its resplendent grace.

This is also Paul's teaching in his second letter to the Corinthians: The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ and the love of God and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you all. For grace and the gift of the Trinity are given by the Father through the Son in the Holy Spirit. Just as grace is given from the Father through the Son, so there could be no communication of the gift to us except in the Holy Spirit. But when we share in the Spirit, we possess the love of the Father, the grace of the Son and the fellowship of the Spirit himself.
