ELDER MARGIE FRANKLIN

Born and raised in Southwest Philadelphia Pennsylvania, Elder Franklin is the daughter of Pastor Louis Carpenter and Pastor Ethel Carpenter. Elder Franklin has been a resident of Sicklerville New Jersey since 1985. She served six years on active duty in the United States Army; four of them overseas: three in Germany and one in Ui Jong-Bu Korea where she met her husband of 39 years, Deacon Jackie L. Franklin. She also served seven years in the Army Reserves. A graduate of the class of 1971 John Bartram High School she attended the James Martin School of Practical Nursing and was employed as a Practical Nurse for 21 years at the Philadelphia Veterans Affairs Medical Center until her retirement in January 2010. Author of the book "The Other Side of Health Care," she shares memorable stories of having been a Nurse for twenty one years and then a patient after diagnosed with Leukemia in 2009.

She is a certificate graduate in Biblical Studies from Southern Baptist Seminary, a diploma graduate in Pastoral Studies from Palmer Seminary, and has a Master of Arts, Theology degree from the Camden County College of Theology. She has served as an Associate Minister for sixteen years at Christ Care Unit Missionary Baptist Church and Cathedral in Sicklerville NJ, where Bishop Robert F. Hargrove Sr. is Pastor and Founder and has served as a former Assistant Pastor of Triumphant Life Outreach Ministries in Philadelphia Pennsylvania. She is a proud member of the National Association of University Women, Southern New Jersey Branch where she enjoys contributing to charitable work and events. Local non-profits are at the heart of whom she loves to give. Her belief is that when we support our local Non Profits we support ourselves, our communities and prove by example to our children that we care about their future.
