JOANNE JOHNSON

Joanne Johnson, 69, Silver Bay, died Sunday, July 3, 2022 at Miller-Dwan Medical Centre in Duluth.

Joanne was born on February 3, 1953 to John and Theresea (Radaich) Salquist in Hibbing and grew up in Silver Bay. After graduating from William Kelley High School in 1971, Joanne married her high school sweetheart, David Johnson later that year, on October 2. They lived in Germany for two years during David's military service before returning to Silver Bay. Joanne was employed at Zup's Foods and later at Northshore Mining.

Joanne was an active member of the Silver Bay community, serving four years as mayor and two terms as a city council member.

Joanne was a caretaker. Her family always came first in her heart. She was everyone's "second mother". Her passion, her laugh, her smile, her love of life, will be dearly missed.

Family was most important to Joanne and she loved spending time with her grandchildren. She also loved cooking for a crowd and knitting.

Joanne was preceded in death by parents and sister, Sharon Clark.

She is survived by husband, David; children Amy (Chris) Seanger, Mandy (Tim) Moench, and Angela (Michael) Hoff; grandchildren Alex, Allison, Cailey, Gabi, Jaxon, Vance, Cece, Crosby, Berkley, Grady, Breckon, and Barron; a great-granddaughter, Kendall; siblings, Jerry Salquist and Jeff (Angie) Salquist; and brother-in-law, Dan Clark.

EVELYN LOUISE (BERG) FRISELL

Evelyn Frisell, age 100, passed away July 4, 2022, at Boundary Waters Care Center in Ely, MN. Ev was born January 14, 1922, to Halvor and Julia (Johnson) Berg in Cyrus, MN, where she grew up and attended school. After high school she attended and graduated from Paul's Hairdressing Academy in Minneapolis, and for a few years owned her own beauty salon in Cyrus. She married Ed Frisell Nov. 7, 1942, in Columbia, MO. They lived in San Diego, CA., Cyrus, Battle Lake and Alexandria, MN, before moving to Two Harbors in 1952 during the construction phase of Reserve Mining and decided to remain on the North Shore. Ed later opened B&E Motors and Ev worked at Ray's Shoe Store for more than 21 years.

Ev was a member of Emmanuel Lutheran Church, the Loyal Order of the Moose, and was active in the American Legion and VFW Auxiliaries during the 1950's and 60's. She was an avid sports enthusiast and a loyal fan of the Vikings and the Twins. Ev had many interests but especially enjoyed flower gardening, crossword and jigsaw puzzles, baking treats, and she loved writing and receiving letters.

Ev was preceded in death by Ed, her husband of 56 years; infant daughter Patricia Carol; brothers Sigvald, Harold and Allan; sisters Gena Boe, Borgny Pinney, Marion Erickson, Olive Fenney and Ruth Bourne; and son-in-law Paul Bergman.

She is survived by her son Jim (Linda) Frisell, Ely, MN; daughter Janice, Seminole, FL; five grandchildren Annette (Tim) Riley, Ely, MN; Todd Frisell, County Kilkenny, Ireland; Jim (Cassie) Hassel, Columbus, OH; Vince (Tina) Hassel, West Des Moines, IA; Karen (Chris) Bowling, Moline, IL; eleven great-grandchildren and several nieces and nephews.

Per Ev's wishes, private services will be held. To share your memories or condolences online please visit www.cavallinfuneralhome.com.
