

Deija Dakota

Deija Dakota is the daughter of Rhea Koski and (late) D.J. Dakota.

Deija will be a senior this coming fall. She has participated in junior varsity basketball, varsity basketball, junior high track & field, varsity track & field, cross country, and 12-14-year-old softball. She is in NHS (National Honor Society), TRIO Upward Bound, and Student Council. She has worked for the KBIC Summer Youth Employment program, and volunteered for KBIC youth program. She is currently employed at Baraga Lakeside Inn. After graduating from high school, Deija would like to attend Ferris State university to pursue a career in health science, where she wants to become a registered nurse. She is sponsored by the Ojibwa Casino.
