New Shooting Event TPPC Members Only APC

The new event will take place October 16 at 6:00 PM

New event for club members only will be an Action Pistol Competition. The weather is cooling, and the Amarillo Rifle and Pistol Club (ARPC) has ended their events for APC. Our club has decided to keep the opportunity to test your skills by having this event for our members.

Action Pistol shooting is a competitive shooting event that has various targets at different ranges to a shooter will navigate as fast and accurate as they are able. This creates a challenging and quick face environment attempting to simulate an environment to test and access your skills.

There will be a range safety officer providing instruction prior to the start of the event. They will also be sure you are navigating the scenarios in a safe manner.

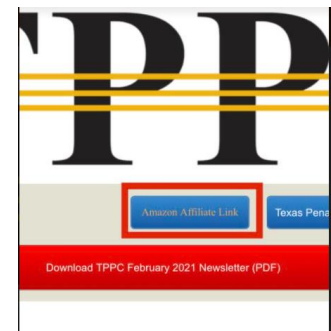

This competitions are a lot of fun and other 'competitors are very helpful providing tips in shooting stance, shooting techniques, and positioning distance from barriers/obstacles.

NRA Armed Citizen from October 2023 Magazine

A woman returned to her Philadelphia, Pa., apartment during the early morning hours of July 16 to find four strangers inside. Thankfully, the woman was armed, so when the alleged burglars confronted her, she drew and shot two of the four; the other two fled. Police found one man outside on the ground with gunshot wounds to his right arm and right leg. The other wounded suspect was found a little farther away. Both men face burglary and related offense charges when released from the hospital.

He Take a Look At Who is Running President Biden's Gun Violence Office

The White House made a much-ballyhooed announcement that they were caving to gun control special interests by installing a new Office of Gun Violence Prevention. The office will have little to do with preventing actual crime and everything to do with using taxpayer dollars to attempt to deny Americans their Second Amendment rights.

The mission for this office will be charged with carrying out President Joe Biden's gun control executive orders. That means this new White House Office of Gun Violence Prevention is a redundant effort to push gun control. Given that the president is pursuing gun control efforts outside the boundaries of federal law, it should be expected that this office will do more of that.

The White House Office of Gun Violence Prevention will be headed up by none other than Vice President Kamala Harris.

The new White House Office of Gun Violence Prevention is anything but dedicated to preventing criminal misuse of firearms. It's a haven of gun control idealogues that are now getting paid by taxpayers to press an unconstitutional agenda.

Gun Lobby Applauds Sen. Cruz For Taking On Banking Discrimination Of Firearm Industry

NSSF, The Firearm Industry Trade Association, applauds U.S. Sen. Ted Cruz (R-Texas) for directly addressing the ongoing and illegal discrimination of the firearm industry by major banks and payment processors. Fox Business reported on this continued discriminatory practice of major banking institutions and payment processors refusing services because officials in those financial sectors politically disagree with Second Amendment rights.

Sen. Cruz, in his capacity as Ranking Member of the Senate Committee on Commerce, Science, and Transportation, recently wrote to Intuit, a payment processor, that reversed their discriminatory policies of denying QuickBooks services to firearm manufacturers and retailers. The change came only after Senate inquiries into the discriminatory practices. Intuit claimed the policy was directed to them by JP Morgan Chase and Bank of America, both banks that hold discriminatory policies against the firearm industry and refuse banking services in an effort to starve them of essential financial services.
