ALABAMA WOMEN'S CENTER RESPONDS TO RULING ON NATION'S MOST RESTRICTIVE ABORTION LAW PASSED IN ALABAMA

The Alabama Women's Center for Reproductive Alternatives (AWC), located in Huntsville, AL will continue to stand by the landmark 1973 SCOTUS decision, Roe v. Wade, following the passage of HB314.

AWC will remain open providing services pursuant to the Roe v. Wade decision and Alabama law.

Dr. Yashica Robinson, AWC Medical Director, stated, "The AWC will continue to provide quality healthcare services for women and families. As a medical professional my patient's health and well-being is first and foremost."

"For over 18 years we have continued to adjust and comply with every law that has been passed to limit a woman's choice about her health. We have fought these laws in court and will continue to do so," stated AWC's CEO, Dalton Johnson.

Alabama Women's Center for Reproductive Alternatives has been operating in Huntsville, Alabama since April 2001. AWC is the only clinic in the state of Alabama with a Board Certified Gynecologist on staff with local hospital privileges. AWC physicians are proponents of women's healthcare and have dedicated their lives to not only treating women but also educating them about the issues affecting their quality of life. AWC physicians work diligently to ensure that every patient receives the highest level of care.
