Things to Think About

November elections for club officers is approaching. The terms of the president and vice president have both reached the end of their terms. The club secretary position is also open. Please be thinking about who you would like to see in these positions and notify any of our club officers in order have them added to the ballot. If anyone would like to become a board member, please let us know.

Club dues of $25 become due in January.

Club Dues are used to pay liability insurance, printing costs for the newsletter, regulatory fees for our non-profit status, supplies, occasional guest performers, and other miscellaneous expenses in order to keep the club viable. Donations to the club are welcome and are tax deductible.

2018 Accordion Camp reminder that the registration form is on our website at

As our pot luck party was well past the stated end , I turned to my wife and asked, "How do we politely get the people to go home?".

Her answer did the trick. We invited junior to play his accordion.

Playing Out

On October 22, Fran Maddox played for the Germans from Russia Oregon/Washington chapter (GROW) at their German house on 55th and Alameda in Portland. She plays there on a regular basis prior to their meetings and during their dinner break.

Marlene Meissner and John Dalen (tuba) entertained residents during the Oktoberfest celebration at Farmington Square Assisted Living in Tualatin on September 30.
