MEETING CONVENED AT 8:30 P.M.

Minutes of previous meeting accepted as read.

Committee reports:

Hospital Visitation- Vinny Zangari reported that he talked with Arthur Clancy about a Christmas gift from the Post. In accordance with his wishes Vinny sent him a basket of fruit. Vinny and Mike Shane paid him a visit. Arthur's wife is bed ridden and arthur is almost blind and can't get out the house. They bought him some milk and juice. Vinny will try to visit him once week to see what he can do ,to help him. Vinny also reported that Jack Hawkins Sr. was taken to the hospital tonight with heart problems. Fred Lewis was in a nursing home in New Jersey.

Membership- Charles Fontana said we are aiming for a membership total of a least 200. Currently we have 193 members paid with about 12 renewals still to come in.

Post Editor -Jim Thoma reported he will be sending out flyers on the Night at the Races. He said he only got responses from only four members on birth dates so he will not be printing birthdays in the paper.

Post Activities- Charles Fontana reported that the a Night-at-the-Races will be held on Feb 22. Admission is $5.00 and includes hot dogs, beer and soda. The Cost of running the race program has already beenpaid for so whatever moneys we make will be looked upon as profit. Hopefully we will get more gamblers than eaters.

Also he reported that the St. Patrick's day dance will be held on March 21, 1992. The price is $20. per person and starts at 7 P.M. Tickets on first come first serve basis, so get your names in as soon as possible.

Treasurer- Pete Antiaco gave a run down of income and expenses. We started with a balance of $ 3,929.91, our current balance is $ 4152.96 an increase of $ 123.05.

Unfinished Business- Ferdie Salvatore gave a status on <sup>adver</sup> ~~advert~~ advertising in the K-G News. He and Jim Thoma have set the following prices for ads: 1/8 page $48., 1/4 page $84 and 1/2 page $144. We now have only 5 advertisers and we may lose some of these, so our members should try getting more ads.

Charles Fontana reported that Corporation has some old standup chairs in the basement that they want to get rid of. Anyone wanting them can have them on a first come basis.

Correspondence-No special action required.

New Business
