Release Form

I/We, the applicant(s), understand and authorize Habitat for Humanity to perform an in-depth study to determine the applicant's need for the home ownership program including, but not limited to, the ability to pay a home mortgage, employment and credit histories, and willingness to partner. The study will include a credit check and verification by the applicant's landlord and employer; a criminal history, sexual offender database check, and a drug screening.

I/We understand that if I/we qualify for the home ownership program, our partnership agreement with Habitat for Humanity includes the completion of sweat equity on our own home, in homeownership classes, and within the ReStore.

The statements made in this application are true and correct to the best of the undersigned's knowledge and belief. These statements are made for the purpose of being selected for the homeownership program from Habitat for Humanity of Pueblo, Inc. I/ We am/are required to notify Habitat of any change in my/our financial or living situation after the date of application. I/We, the undersigned, understand that if chosen into the homeownership program, I/we must occupy this house as my/our primary residence.
