

November 2017

The Turkey Bash at Temple Israel was a big success, with 70 students competing from 26 schools. Thanks to Kristine Stone and Sheryl Kromash for organizing the event, to Matt and Evan Cobb for doing the trophies, photography and scoring table, and to Vincent Stone who was the assistant TD and House Player. Section winners were Jack Rhoton (SM), Aron Cheng (SE), Noa Phan (K12), Davey Ward (K6). Shaan Prasad (K3), and Jason Zhang (K1). Top Team was Freedom 7, which once again took home the Traveling Pawn.

The Scholastic National Tournament will be at Disney World in December, so there will be no SCSC tournament next month, but will return to Pineapple Cove in January.

OCTOBER 2017

The October Brouhaha was a lot of fun, thanks to the great site and hospitality of the host, Temple Israel.

Congratulations to Peyton Kromash, who won the largest Scholastic Masters section ever, and to Kyle Knapp who won the Scholastic Experts section and Biggest Upset (for the second month in a row!).

Danny Ward returned to league play and won the K12 section by a full point, and his sister Maleyna Ward won the top K1 prize. George Rhoton had the only perfect score, winning the K6 section, and Varun Sriramineni won a very tough K3 section, helping his school (Freedom 7) win Top Team, and taking home the Traveling Pawn.

The next tournament will also be at Temple Israel, on Saturday November 18th. See you there!

September 2017

The 2017-2018 Space Coast Scholastic Chess season kicks off on Saturday, September 23, at Holy Trinity (Lower campus).

Please register your child to participate via the link on this website, and pay at the playing site. A current USCF membership is required to play.

We will continue to offer a sibling discount.

Trophies to the top 5 places and three teams in most sections. Medals to first time players.

Kristine Stone has arranged the tournament sites for the first three months, but we still need playing sites for 2018. Please contact her with ideas.
