

The National Football Foundation's CHAPTER NETWORK

JUNE 4, 2019 • VOLUME 15 ISSUE 3

Presented by UNDER ARMOUR

PASADENA/SAN GABRIEL CHAPTER HOLDS MULTIPLE EVENTS

49TH ANNUAL BANQUET & COACHES MIXER HIGHLIGHT BUSY AGENDA.

Fifty-three high school standouts gathered at the Pasadena Convention Center for the chapter's 49th annual installment.

Johnathan Franklin presents the LA Rams/Deacon Jones Award to Bruce Loyola from South Hills High School. Franklin, a former UCLA and Green Bay Packer running back, now represents the LA Rams Community Relations team.

Ms. Anna Park, CEO of Great Minds in STEM, presented the GMiS Scholarships to Seth Rodriquez (St. Paul HS), Ivan Sanchez (Workman HS), & Nicholas Aguayo (Glenn A. Wilson HS). In addition to the scholarship, all three receive an all-expense-paid trip to the GMiS Conference in Orlando, FL.

Former Florida State QB Chris Rix delivered the keynote speech. A four-year starter for the Seminoles who also played with the San Diego Chargers, Rix is now a minister for the Fellowship of Christian Athletes and a college football and NFL analyst with Fox Sports Radio.

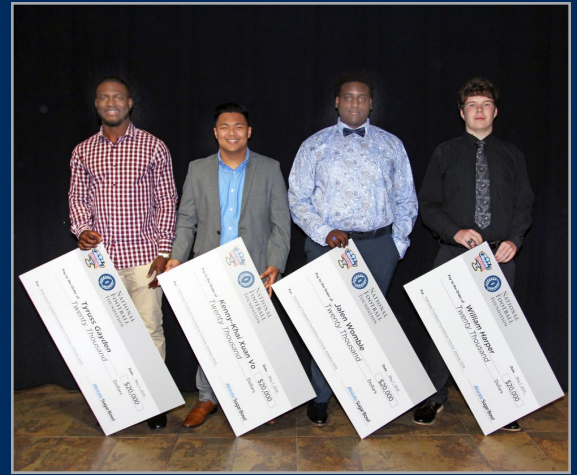

The chapter staged a highly successful coaches mixer to build the high school coaching community and increase membership. Pictured are chapter president and 2016 Chapter Leadership Award winner Tony Ortega (left) and Coach of the Year Andrew Policky from Arcadia High School.

ALLSTATE SUGAR BOWL CHAPTER DISTRIBUTES $80,000 AT ANNUAL AWARDS LUNCHEON

Twenty-nine local high school football players were recognized for their achievements in the classroom, in the community and on the field. The event was held in the St. Charles Room at the Mercedes-Benz Superdome.

Four winners each received $20,000 college scholarships. L-R: Tyruss Gayden, West Jefferson HS; Kenny-Khai Vo, L.W. Higgins HS; Jalen Womble, Holy Cross HS; William Harper, Thomas Jefferson HS.

WYOMING CHAPTER CELEBRATES 25TH ANNUAL SCHOLAR-ATHLETE BANQUET IN LARAMIE

The top 15 high school scholar-athletes in Wyoming were selected from 127 nominations and each received a $1,200 scholarship.

Kade VanDyken of Big Horn High School was selected as the top scholar-athlete and received an additional $1,200 scholarship. VanDyken stands next to his "Honor Board", which is created for each honoree.

NORTHERN CALIFORNIA CHAPTER REACHES NEW HEIGHTS AT 59TH ANNUAL BANQUET

$24,000 IN SCHOLARSHIPS DISTRIBUTED, BRINGING ALL-TIME TOTAL TO $912,000.

Twenty-four of the best and brightest high school scholar-athletes from the San Francisco area were honored and each received a $1,000 scholarship.

Former Pac-12 Commissioner Tom Hansen joins former Purdue QB Mike Terrizzi, former Washington Huskie tight end Eric Bjornson and others at the sold-out event. Seated L-R: Tom Hansen, Bryan Hansen, Mike Terrizzi, Fernando DeAlba. Standing L-R: Lawrence Fan, John Wiegmann, Eric Bjornson.

Mike Terrizzi serves as the auctioneer during the live auction that generates significant scholarship funds for the chapter. Terrizzi was a standout QB for Purdue and led the Boilermakers to a 31-20 win over Notre Dame in 1974. He is now a successful attorney in the Bay Area.

Seated L-R: Robert Buch; Senior VP Business Affairs Pac-12 Woodie Dixon; Alex Bailey. Standing L-R: Richard Murray; Robert Dykes; former Princeton standouts Mark Bailey & Mark Lockenmeyer.

JOE YUKICA/NEW HAMPSHIRE CHAPTER CELEBRATES 32ND ANNUAL SCHOLAR-ATHLETE DINNER IN MANCHESTER

Thirty-eight scholar-athletes from the state of New Hampshire were honored for their prep achievements. Twenty-one of these young athletes will play football in college.

Madison Lucontoni of Bedford High School was the first female scholar-athlete to be recognized by the chapter. A placekicker, she kicked 64 of 70 extra points while adding 8 field goals. Pictured with her family, Madison will play ice hockey at Assumption College (MA) in the fall.

JOE MEWHINEY/CENTRAL MASSACHUSETTS CHAPTER PAYS SPECIAL TRIBUTE TO RICHIE LEWIS

MEMPHIS CHAPTER HONORS GREATNESS AT 47 ANNUAL AWARDS BANQUET

Six high school scholar-athletes from the Worcester area were honored at the 37th annual event which was renamed the Richard Lewis Scholar-Athlete Award Program in honor of the man who served on the committee and emceed the event for 25 years. Lewis was honored with the Chapter Leadership Award in 2015 and passed away in 2017.

Twelve high school superstars were recognized for their overall accomplishments and all were presented with a scholarship.