CONSTITUTION AND BY-LAWS
of the
PHILADELPHIA BULK MAIL CENTER
LOCAL 7048
AMERICAN POSTAL WORKERS UNION, AFL-CIO

Preamble

We the Postal Workers of Local 7048 in order to form a more perfect union, establish this Constitution and by-laws.

We, who come from diverse crafts, believe that in unity there is strength. We believe that all postal workers and all members of labor have the right to economic, political and social justice.

ARTICLE I - NAME

The name of this organization shall be the Philadelphia Bulk Mail Center Local #7048, American Postal Workers Union. Let it be understood that all words in the Constitution indicating masculine gender shall also refer to the feminine gender.

ARTICLE II - OBJECTIVES

We desire to conform to the Constitution of the American Postal Workers Union, AFL-CIO and that instrument shall apply in all matters not expressly covered by the Constitution of this Local #7048. APWU Local #7048 affirms its belief in a single union of all postal workers in non-supervisory levels. Local #7048 will make every effort to bring into being a single union of all workers by mergers with other postal unions, and initiate intensive all out organizing campaigns reflecting the APWU philosophy.

ARTICLE III - MEMBERSHIP

SECTION 1. All bargaining unit postal employees properly assigned to the jurisdiction of Local #7048 shall be eligible for membership in this Local.

SECTION 2. No person eligible under the above provisions shall be denied membership because of sex, race, creed, color, age, religion, physical or mental handicap, political affiliation, nationality or sexual orientation.

SECTION 3. Any non-bargaining unit employee of the Postal Service, in order to join or retain any of the Group Benefits Plans offered by the APWU, Local or National must pay full dues of the Local. They shall be honorary members, but with no right to hold Local Office, attend meetings [or] be seated as a convention delegate. Honorary Members shall have no right to a voice or a vote, Locally or Nationally.

SECTION 4. Members of this Union who retire from the Postal Service may maintain full membership with all rights of such membership by continuing to pay full dues. They shall receive a ballot from the Craft last served.

SECTION 5. All candidates for membership must be submitted on a SF Form 1187.

SECTION 6.a. To be in good standing, a member's dues must be paid up as of the first day of the current month. A member's good standing status shall not be affected by reason of the fact that his/her paycheck from the payroll period in which his/her dues deductions are made is insufficient to permit such dues deductions, by reason of illness injury, pregnancy leave, lay-off or disciplinary suspension. If there is any question of good standing of a member, the Executive Board will refer to the records of this Local to make such determination.

SECTION 6.b. Members not in good standing shall be ineligible for any Union benefits and shall not be permitted to hold any elected or appointed office, nor shall they be seated as delegates to any convention nor have voice or vote in this Local.

SECTION 7. All members of this Local shall be in their respective craft divisions.

SECTION 8. All members must be provided with a copy of our Local Constitution and any new amendments.

SECTION 9. Any member working in a non-bargaining unit position with responsibility for issuing or recommending discipline, or applying or interpreting the National Agreement loses their rights to voice and vote in General Membership meetings and Local Elections for the time they are acting in the non-bargaining unit position and for a period of thirty (30) days thereafter. If there is any question of such members eligibility to have voice or vote the Executive Board will refer to the records of this Local to make such determination.

ARTICLE IV - JURISDICTION

The APWU, Philadelphia Bulk Mail Center Local, #7048, claims jurisdiction over all postal and mail processing operations including but not limited to all work on operations directly or indirectly related to postal or mail processing operations, including any operations that transmit or receive messages by electronic or other means performed at the Philadelphia Bulk Mail Center, Fairless Hills Post Office, Levittown Post Office and/or Annexed facilities both present and in the future.

ARTICLE V - CONVENTIONS

SECTION 1. a. The President and Vice-President shall be delegates to the National and State Conventions for the APWU, if otherwise eligible. The Director of Industrial Relations, Secretary-Treasurer and all craft directors shall be delegates to the State Convention, if otherwise eligible. These delegates shall be termed "automatic delegates." The President, subject to Executive Board approval, may appoint additional or replacement delegates as needed to the State or National Conventions and authorize additional funding for same.

SECTION 1. b. In addition to the automatic delegates to the National Convention, there shall be a delegate from the rank and file membership to include those elected officials not termed "automatic delegates." This delegate shall be elected by the membership.

SECTION 1. c. In addition to the automatic delegates to the State Convention, there shall be three delegates from the rank and file membership to include those elected officials not termed “automatic delegates”. These delegates shall be elected by the membership.

SECTION 2 All delegates must be automatic, appointed or elected and all delegates shall be members of the local delegation as chaired by the President.

SECTION 3. The Executive Board shall, at its January meeting in the even year, recommend to the next General Membership meeting the total amount to be expended for delegates to be sent to a State Convention.

SECTION 4.a. All nominations for delegates to the State Convention shall be made at the regular January meeting in the even years. Election by secret ballot of eligible nominees shall take place on the day of the next regular March meeting, at times to be determined by a majority vote of the Executive Board, to ensure members on all tours have the opportunity to vote. These times will be posted on all Union bulletin boards with the regular General Membership meeting notice. Voting will close at the adjournment of the General Membership Meeting.

SECTION 4.b. The President shall appoint, prior to the January meeting, three (3) tellers who shall count and tally the ballots for election of State Convention delegates and the results of the election shall be announced to the membership immediately after the completion of the tally. The three (3) tellers may not be candidates for election as State Convention delegates.

SECTION 4.c. In case of a tie between two or more delegates wishing to attend the State Convention, the Executive Board will meet within 72 hours to discuss procedures to break the tie.

SECTION 5. The Executive Board shall, at its March meeting in the even year, recommend to that month's General Membership meeting the total amount to be expended for delegates to be sent to a National Convention.

SECTION 6.a. All nominations for delegates to the National Convention shall be made at the regular March meeting in the even year. Election by secret ballot of the eligible nominees shall take place on the day of the next regular April meeting, at times to be determined by a majority vote of the Executive Board, to ensure members on all tours have the opportunity to vote. These times will be posted on all Union bulletin boards with the regular General Membership meeting notice. Voting will close at the adjournment of the General Membership Meeting.

SECTION 6.b. The President shall appoint, prior to the March meeting, three (3) tellers who shall count and tally the ballots for election of National Convention delegates and the result of the election shall be announced to the membership immediately after the completion of the tally. The three (3) tellers may not be candidates for election as National Convention delegates.

SECTION 6.c. In case of a tie between two or more delegates wishing to attend the National Convention, the Executive Board will meet within 72 hours to discuss procedures to break the tie.

SECTION 7. In the event of a special Convention, the President with the approval of the majority of the Executive Board shall appoint the delegates.

SECTION 8.a. A delegates meeting shall be called prior to leaving for the convention. At this meeting duties and responsibilities will be explained to all delegates. Failure of a Convention delegate to attend a called delegates meeting prior to the convention shall be considered sufficient cause for removal from the delegation.

SECTION 8.b. During the course of the Convention, delegates are responsible for attending called delegates meetings and daily convention sessions. A delegate's failure to attend a called delegate meeting or a daily convention session may be considered sufficient cause for removal from the delegation.

ARTICLE VI - EXECUTIVE BOARD

SECTION 1. The Executive Board shall consist of all officers holding elective positions. The Executive Board shall oversee all of the Union's business not otherwise provided for and shall have authority to conduct the business of this Union between regular membership meetings by majority vote. Actions of the Executive Board shall be subject to approval of a regular membership meeting.

SECTION 2. The President shall, whenever the circumstances require, be empowered to call a special meeting of the Executive Board.

SECTION 3. The Executive Board shall meet monthly and shall, prior to adjournment, determine the date, time and place of its next monthly meeting.

SECTION 4. For Executive Board meetings, a quorum shall consist of five (5) members of the total Executive Board complement.

SECTION 5. The business of this Local shall be conducted on the basis of a fiscal year, beginning July 1 and ending June 30.

SECTION 6. An Executive Board member who arrives more than thirty (30) minutes after the stated starting time of a regularly scheduled Executive Board or General Membership meeting shall be carried as absent. All officers of this Local are expected to attend all regularly scheduled Executive Board Meetings, regularly scheduled General Membership Meetings and any special meetings called by the President, unless said officer is on valid union business with the prior approval of the President. Any exception must be approval by a majority vote of Executive Board members present.

SECTION 7. Each elected member of the Executive Board shall have (1) vote.

SECTION 8. The elected Executive Board shall consist of the President, Vice President, Secretary/Treasurer, Director of Industrial Relations, three (3) Trustees, Craft Directors, and a Political Director.

SECTION 9. A majority vote shall be the majority of the members present at an Executive Board meeting.

He shall work under the direction of the President and shall be responsible for the publication of all newsletters or papers on a regular basis not to exceed four (4) months between publications. He shall maintain a complete and up-to-date mailing list of this Local at all times. He may attend Executive Board meetings with no vote. He will receive compensation for duties performed under the provisions of Article XIX.

ARTICLE X. - NOMINATIONS AND ELECTIONS

SECTION 1. The officers and members of the Executive Board as set forth in Article VI, Section 8 herein, shall be elected for a term of two (2) years. Nominations for such offices shall take place at the April General Membership Meeting every other year during the odd years. Election procedures are as hereinafter set forth. The newly elected official shall be installed in office at the June General Membership meeting.

SECTION 2. A Judge of Elections and three (3) Tellers for the elections of officers shall be selected by the Executive Board subject to approval of the General Membership Meeting in March of the election year. A notice must be posted on all Bulletin Boards naming the Judge of Elections and the Tellers notifying the membership that nominations of officers will be held the following April. The Judge of Elections and Tellers cannot be candidates in that election. Upon appointment he shall be given written authorization as Judge of Elections and furnished with a copy of the Local and National Constitutions.

SECTION 3. Notice of the time and place of the nomination and/or elections and of the offices to be filled shall be posted on all bulletin boards not less than fifteen (15) days prior to same.

SECTION 4.a. At the April General Membership meeting, to be held no later than April 15th, at which time nominations are made, every member in good standing and present at said meeting shall be given ample opportunity to nominate the candidates of his choice for any and all offices for which nominations are to be made. Every member in good standing shall be eligible to be a candidate for, and to hold office, provided, however, that such member shall have complied with all of the provisions contained in the Constitution of the American Postal Workers Union and in the Constitution of the Local Union relating to eligibility and qualifications for nomination and election to the office or positions to be filled.

SECTION 4.b. Any postal employee eligible to be a member of the American Postal Worker's Union who voluntarily holds a managerial, supervisory or EAS position with responsibility for issuing or recommending discipline, or interpreting the National Agreement for the equivalent of one pay period in a year shall be ineligible to hold office at any level of the American Postal Workers Union (APWU) or to be a delegate to any convention held by the APWU or any subordinate body of the APWU, so long as the employee continues to serve in such position and for a period of one (1) year from the time the employee vacates such position.

Any postal employee who has submitted an application to a managerial, supervisory, or EAS position with responsibility for issuing or recommending discipline or applying or interpreting the National Agreement shall withdraw such application prior to the acceptance of nomination for any office in the APWU.

SECTION 4.c. Any postal employee who shall voluntarily hold, accept or apply for any managerial or supervisory position, EAS position, for any period of time, whether one day or a fraction thereof, either detailed, acting, probationary or permanently, shall immediately vacate any office held by that member in the national, local, area local, district council, state or regional organization, any department of the APWU, the Postal Press Association, or any subordinate body of the APWU which receives financial support or uses the name of the American Postal Workers Union.

SECTION 5. A member to be eligible for office must be a member in good standing as defined in Article 3, Section 6 (a).

SECTION 6. A current mailing list, as maintained by the Secretary/Treasurer cross-checked against the most current dues check off list, of all eligible voters that are dues paying members as of April 1st of the election year, must be made available for use by the Judge of Elections. This mailing list shall contain the name, current address and social security number of the member. The mailing list shall be broken down by craft. At the April General Membership Meeting of the election year, the Judge of Elections shall report the condition of the mailing list.

SECTION 7. The mailing list must be current and correct by the April General Membership Meeting. This must be attested to in writing by the Judge of Elections and the Secretary/Treasurer. All communications must be through the Judge of Elections. He/She will be the liaison between the Local and the Printers.

SECTION 8. No member shall hold more than one elected office in this Local Union, and no one shall be permitted to run as a candidate for more than one Local Office.

SECTION 9. It shall be the duty of the Judge of Elections/designee to secure signed letters of acceptance from the nominees and determine the eligibility of the nominees. The Letters of Acceptance must be mailed to the nominees no later than five (5) days after the nominations. Letters of Acceptance bearing the nominees' signatures must be postmarked to the Judge of Elections not later than ten (10) days after the date on which the acceptance letters were sent. Nominations may be accepted in writing at the General Membership Meeting in the presence of the Judge of Elections or designated tellers pending eligibility.

SECTION 10. Election of officers shall be conducted by a secret ballot-referendum. Write-in votes shall not be valid, nor shall they be considered or counted in the election.

SECTION 11.a. The incumbent shall be on the first position on the ballot and the other candidates selected by lot under the supervision of the Judge of Elections and at least one teller. The incumbent Trustees shall be selected by lot for the first ballot position. Their opponents shall be selected by lot in the same manner as above and listed in the order selected behind the incumbents.

SECTION 11.b. In the event that only one (1) eligible candidate is nominated for an office, the Secretary/Treasurer shall cast one (1) ballot for such candidate whereupon the Judge of Elections shall declare such candidate duly elected to the respective position and his/her name shall not appear on the ballot.

SECTION 11.c. A notice shall be posted five (5) days after the deadline for receiving letters of Acceptance for nominations showing the names of all candidates.

In the event a candidate is running unopposed and verified eligible by the Judge of Elections a notice shall be posted showing that the candidates(s) is unopposed/elected according to the procedures in Section 11 (b).

SECTION 12.a. The Judge of Election shall order a sufficient number of ballot kits to conduct the election. Each ballot kit must contain the following: (1) a ballot and instructions, color coded (by craft and location); (2) a blank ballot envelope; (3) a numbered color coded return inner addressed envelope; (4) outer envelope. All ballot kits must be mailed first class. The Judge of Election shall supervise addressing the blank outer envelopes furnished by the printer.

SECTION 12.b. A notice shall be posted on all Union Bulletin Boards informing the membership that if a ballot is not received four (4) days after the mailing they must request in writing a duplicate ballot from the Judge of Elections or designated Teller. This notice shall include the date ballots are mailed and the date ballots must be returned. The notice will also include place, date and time ballots are to be counted.

SECTION 12.c. Candidates and their certified observers shall be allowed to be in attendance at the polls, the counting of the ballots and any physical movement of the ballots from the collection of the ballots through the final storing of the ballots. This shall be granted through the written request of the candidate to the judge of elections. The actions of the observers shall be in accordance with the Labor-Management Reporting and Disclosure Act of 1959, as amended (LMRDA). The name of the certified observer may be given to the Judge of Elections, in writing, with the return of the nominees' acceptance."

SECTION 13. A Post Office Box Number or Post Office Addresses shall be the return address on the outer and inner envelopes. The outer envelope shall, under the return address, include "address correction requested". All ballots, to be valid must be postmarked no later than midnight of the third Thursday in June of each odd year. The Members' name, address and the last four (4) digits of the members' social security number shall be requested to be printed, typed, or legibly written on the return envelope to be valid. For ballot security and identification, the ballots shall be numbered according to article X. Section 12. The sequential numbering of ballots and envelopes matched to the members name shall be used to identify members' ballots. If the ballot and the envelope can be matched with the voter to the satisfaction of the judge of elections and /or the elections committee, it shall be declared a valid ballot. The Judge of Election and at least one teller shall receive from the printer all of the overrun and mutilated ballot kits. The Judge of Election and at least one teller shall supervise the transportation of all completed ballot kits from the printer to the Post Office for mailing.

SECTION 14. Balloting for election of officers shall be conducted by mail. Ballots shall be mailed to members in good standing at their last known address, no earlier than eighteen (18) days nor later than fifteen (15) days prior to the closing date of balloting. The conduct and supervision of the election shall be as hereinafter set forth under Judge of Election. Within two (2) days after the certification of the election results signed by the Judge of Elections and the tellers, it shall be the duty of the Recording Secretary/Treasurer to post on all Union bulletin boards the results of said election. The results of the election shall be posted before the June General Membership meeting. All elected officers shall be installed at said meeting.

SECTION 15. Candidates for election to craft office must be members of the craft they wish to represent.

SECTION 16. The candidate receiving the highest number of votes for each office shall be declared the winner.

SECTION 17. All election documents shall be retained by the Judge of Elections in a safety deposit box for a period of one (1) year following the election.

SECTION 18. A special election edition of the Philly Parcel shall be published and mailed no later than May 23rd. It shall contain only articles submitted by candidates for contested positions, not to exceed 500 words. All such articles must be submitted by certified mail to the Judge of Elections and received by May 12th. No submissions received later than May 12th shall be published in the special edition. All articles must be on white paper, typed and double spaced. Articles will be printed as submitted, with both grammatical and spelling errors unchanged. Article review and word count will be done by the Editor of the Philly Parcel. One copy of the Special Election Edition of the Philly Parcel shall be sent to every member in good standing of APWU, Local 7048 by First Class Mail.

ARTICLE XI - DUES AND ASSESSMENTS

SECTION 1. The dues of this Local shall be a minimum of twenty (20) dollars per member per month to include the National per capita tax.

SECTION 2. Whenever the financial need arises, a dues increase shall be recommended by the Executive Board and must be approved by a majority vote of secret ballots taken at a general membership meeting, provided that it be posted continually for 15 days on all union bulletin boards prior to that meeting stating the date, time and place of the meeting and that a dues increase will be voted on at that meeting. Any member in good standing has the right to request an absentee ballot from any union officer that will be due at the union post office box prior to that meeting. An absentee ballot will be notarized and the trustees will assure that no member votes more than once.

SECTION 3. All increases in the National per capita shall be automatically added to the Local's due structure. Future per capita tax and Local dues increases are to be derived by deducting three percent (3%) of each negotiated salary increase, one percent (1%) for the APWU, and two percent (2%) for the Local.

SECTION 4. Special assessments may be levied when it becomes absolutely necessary to carry out organizational work after recommendation of the Executive Board and guidelines as set forth in Article XI, Section 2.

ARTICLE XII - MEETINGS

SECTION 1. This Local Union shall meet once in January, March, April, June, September and November, at such time and place as the Executive Board may decide.

SECTION 2.

- (a) Special meetings may be convened by the President, whenever he may deem it necessary to the best interest of the Local Union, or at the written request of fifty (50) members in good standing or by vote of the General Membership Meeting. No business but that for which the meeting, stating the time and place selected and the object for which called, shall be posted on all bulletin boards. There must be at least three (3) days notice prior to such meeting.
- (b) Informational meetings shall be called by the Executive Board on an as needed basis.

SECTION 3. Roberts Rule of Order shall decide all questions of order not herein provided at all meetings to include Executive Board Meetings.

SECTION 4. The order of business at all regular meetings shall be as follows:

- (a) Opening of meeting with Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag.
- (b) Roll call of Officers.
- (c) Reading of Minutes of previous meeting.
- (d) Executive Board Minutes.

- (j) Communications.
- (k) Report of Committees.
- (l) Unfinished Business.
- (m) New Business.
- (n) Trustees Report.
- (o) Adjournment.

This order of business may be transposed at any time by a majority vote of the members present at the meeting.

SECTION 5.

In the absence of the President and Vice President, the Secretary-Treasurer shall preside. If the need arises, the President shall appoint an Executive Board member to fill pro tem any vacancy caused by the absence of any other officer.

SECTION 6. Donations, contributions, or subscriptions of any nature from the local treasury, other than what is provided for in the Constitution and By-Laws of this Union shall require a two thirds (2/3) vote of the members present at any regular meeting of this Union.

SECTION 7. No criticism of any member's race, sex, religion, creed, age, color, physical or mental handicap, political affiliation, nationality or sexual orientation shall be allowed at any meeting of this Union.

SECTION 8. Individual grievances shall not be presented as a subject for discussion at the meeting of this Union.

SECTION 9. An itemized list of all expenses incurred and paid for by this Local for the month preceding the General Membership Meeting must be included in the Secretary/Treasurer's Report for the meeting.

ARTICLE XIII - MEMBER CHARGES AND PROCEDURES

SECTION 1. All charges of misconduct against an officer or member of this Local shall be processed in accordance with Article XV of the American Postal Workers Union, AFL-CIO, National Constitution and By-Laws.

ARTICLE XIV – LOCAL AND MEMBERSHIP PROTECTION

SECTION 1. a. Any position, elected or appointed, held by a member working in a non-bargaining unit capacity for any period of time, shall be declared vacant and shall be filled by the provisions in article XV of this Constitution.

SECTION 1. b.
