

Goslin, Harold T.

Harold T. Goslin, 82, of Gagetown, passed away Friday afternoon, September 16, 2005, at his residence. He was born in Unionville on April 17, 1923, a son of Alfred and Charlotte (Fournier) Goslin. He married the former Margaret Deering on November 18, 1944. Harold was a member of St. Agatha Catholic Church and the Knights of Columbus. He had owned and operated the Colwood Bar for seven years and was a self-employed residential and commercial painter. Harold and Marge were crowned king and queen of the Unionville Silver Centennial in 2004. Surviving along with Marge, his loving wife of 60 years, are their daughters, Bonnie (Richard) Misiak, of Pinconning, and Linda (Don) Sturm, living in Traverse City; five grandchildren, and three great-grandchildren. Also surviving are his brothers, Keith (Marie) Goslin, of Gagetown, and Patrick (Maryann) Goslin, of Unionville; sisters, Ila (Leo) Seurynk, of Bay City, Helen Wood, of Essexville, Marianne (Al) Beebe, of Roscommon, and Connie Goslin, of Detroit. Preceding him in death were two brothers, Aloysius and Clarence; and four sisters, Felice Vermeersch, Dorothy Goebel, Evelyn Griebel and Jane Rhodes. Mass of Christian Burial will be celebrated at 11 a.m. on Tuesday, September 20, 2005, at St. Agatha Church, with Fr. Steve Fillion officiating. Burial will follow in the church cemetery. Visitation will be from 2 to 9 p.m. on Monday at the Gagetown Funeral Chapel, and from 10 a.m. until the time of service on Tuesday at the church. There will be a parish scripture service at 7 p.m. on Monday at the funeral home, followed by a recitation of the Rosary by the Knights of Columbus. The family has requested memorials be made to Heartland Hospice or St. Agatha Church.
