

Walrod, Ervin

Mr. Ervin E. Walrod, 83, of Gagetown passed away Monday morning, Aug. 27, 2001. He was born in Verona Township on Aug. 29, 1917, the son of Nelson and Sadie (King) Walrod. On June 29, 1946, he married Zora Slaughter. Mr. Walrod was employed with the McNally Construction Company as a heavy equipment operator and the J. P. Burrows Cement Company as a supervisor, and had farmed from 1950 until 1965. He then was an operating engineer with the N. G. Gilbert Co., and worked at the Gagetown Elevator until his retirement. Surviving along with Zora, his loving wife of 55 years, are their daughter, Bonnie Kozan of Cass City; granddaughter, Jessica Kozan; special nephew, Leroy Armstead and his wife, Carol; a brother-in-law and sister-in-law, William Slaughter and his wife, Charlene, of Deford; special friends, Maurice and Judy Winchester of Gagetown; and several nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by a brother, Nelson, in infancy; and sisters, Lydia Armstead, Georgia Hazard, and Ina Walrod. Funeral services will be at 11 a.m. on Wednesday, Aug. 29, 2001, at Gagetown Funeral Chapel with the Rev. John Heim officiating. Interment will follow in Elmwood Township Cemetery. Visitation will be from noon until 9 p.m. today at Gagetown Funeral Chapel. The family has suggested memorials to the Alzheimer's Association.
