Musician of the month

Nathan Zangmeister

I grew up in Zanesville, OH and started singing and taking piano lessons at a young age. As time went on, I became interested in guitar and began playing in various bands with highschool friends. While in college, I frequently played Open Mic Nights, which is something I still like to do when time permits. For the last 10 years I've been playing with my current bands The Wayfarers and Two By Two. You can find our music and tour schedules at www.facebook.com/thewayfarersband and www.facebook.com/twobytwoband

On the third Thursday of every month I host the Weasel Boy Brewing Open Mic and encourage everyone to come showcase their talents.

Artist of the Month

Sharon Dean

The art of Sharon Dean has been described as a "Riot of Color". Her energy filled, eclectic paintings brighten thousands of rooms across the country and in four countries. Home-base is Mystic Sister Studio part of "The Nest" on the 5th floor of the Masonic Temple on 4th St, downtown Zanesville. For years, Dean has been active in ArtCoz and ZAAP, volunteering as the primary window designer. Dean spends June through October traveling, vending, and live painting at Music and Art Festivals across Ohio and several states. She takes her art to her audiences, creating new followers, fans, and friends along the way. This year finds Dean shifting more into the roles of Motivational Speaker and Mystic Teacher. This folds nicely into her visionary concepts and messages she imbues into her art. The celebration of the Divine Feminine, mythology, mystic symbolism, and nature are only a few of the themes Dean explores. Often her paintings include UV reactive and glow in the dark aspects, creating a multi-dimensional experience. It is Dean's desire to utilize her mural skills and take part in the public art movement downtown. Follow the art on Instagram @MysticSisterStudio and <http://www.facebook.com/mysticsisterstudio> and <http://www.facebook.com/bohemianarttours> Join Sharon Dean on October 1st Friday Art Walk as she showcases new art, prints, stickers. buttons, and lots of specials in her studio in Suite 510 from 5:00-8:30 pm.

Brayden Heath is the founder and owner of "The Boho Raven," since 2019. When the pandemic arrived, Brayden focused more of his free time to develop his art. Brayden's style is geometric abstract and more Modernism. His artwork has led to an art boutique business just a few months ago as a way to create more and provide great jewelry and other products. Brayden has been involved with ZAAP off and on since 2017 and is passionate about it. He feels it is important to give back to those who have helped with these opportunities and is excited to see where his journey as a business owner and artist will take him. He says, "ZAAP has done so much for the community and I'm honored to be a member. Join me on First Friday in October as I have my first black and white gallery show at the ZAAP gallery and see my artwork there throughout the month of October."

Your community needs your help!

Local health systems across Guernsey, Noble, Muskingum, Belmont, Washington, and Coshocton counties are coming together to ask for your help.

With the latest surge in COVID-19 cases, our hospitals, emergency departments, and urgent cares are seeing record numbers of patients. Many are requiring hospitalization with a higher degree of illness than we have seen in the past. This is taking a severe toll on the local healthcare workforce. We are concerned with what the coming weeks will bring. We want to continue to provide the care our patients need, when and where they need it. We need your help.

What we are experiencing is very real. This is a medical, not a political issue. A large percentage of our inpatients are very sick with COVID. When we look at our patient data, a vast majority of hospitalized COVID patients have not received the COVID vaccine.

COVID does not discriminate. It impacts all ages, races and sexes. The virus will spread - even to those who are healthy. We do have ways to reduce exposure to COVID and reduce infections. You CAN use a mask AND if you are 12 and older, get VACCINATED.

We need your help to protect yourself and your loved ones. At times, we are all asked to put others before ourselves. During the pandemic, our call is no different. Using our knowledge of science and compassion to help others, we ask that you act soon. Please help us change the trajectory of COVID-19 for our communities by protecting yourself and your loved ones.

By masking and becoming fully vaccinated, we will be able to dramatically slow down the rate of spread and ultimately, COVID's potential exposure to you.

Our communities have experienced so much loss due to COVID. As our teams console families who have lost loved ones, we have heard many say, "we never expected COVID to create such heartache and loss." Those experiencing loss are often moved to get vaccinated.

Historically our respective county residents have banded together during times of struggle. That's what we love about the southeastern region of Ohio. Whether it was a fire, tornado, or flood, you have stepped up to support one another in times of crisis. We ask that you do that again. Our communities are in crisis. We ask that you rally together and extend grace instead of being divided.

The leaders of your community hospitals are joining hands to fight for our community's health. Please join us for the betterment of your loved ones and our communities.
