

Dear Dr. Patel:

I cannot express how much it means to me that you and your staff always manage to work me into your busy schedule. Although my problems are minor compared to many of your patients, the problems never seem to be minor to me at the time. Yet, I am always treated as the most important.

You are truly a great physician and humanitarian that I greatly admire and respect.

Sincerely,

Donna Miller

Dear Dr. Patel:

I can not express how much it means to me that you and your staff ALWAYS manage to work me into your busy schedule. Although my problems are minor compared to many of your patients, the problems never seem to be minor to me at the time. Yet, I am always treated as the most important.

You are truly a great physician and humanitarian that I greatly admire and respect.

Sincerely,

Donna Miller