Exalted Ruler Message

I want to give a special thank you to PER Kelvin Kos, his wife Liz and the Officers for doing such a great job this past year during this extremely difficult time.

Here we go, starting a New Year, 2021-2022. I hope that we have endured the worst of this pandemic and that we can start holding some of our regular events throughout this year. We will start with Mother's Day knowing that we will have some restrictions with seating and capacity.

I want to thank all of our new officers who have stepped up to the commitment of their positions. I also would like to thank our new House Committee Chairwoman, Ronda Ward, and her committee. I know they will do a great job this year. Thanks to all of the members who have volunteered for committees, chaired a committee, or overseen any other activity in the Lodge.

I can't stress enough, what makes our Lodge great, is our volunteers, so please volunteer for an event or help in the kitchen. Serve your special or favorite dish on a Friday or Saturday night.

Terry Ingalls, Exalted Ruler

Class named in Honor of 2021-2022 Officers

Front Row: William Hummel, Stephan Grisham, E.R. Terry Ingalls, Bobby Ciancio.

Diaper Drive

March 16th - May 31

1 in 3 moms struggle to provide enough diapers for her baby. Please participate in Westminster Elks Diaper Drive. All diapers, wipes, baby food, and formula will be donated to WeeCycle.Org, a nonprofit that provides goods to over 50 organizations working directly with families in need. All sizes are needed, the most in demand are sizes 5, 6 diapers and 4T & 5T Pull-ups. If you would like to make a monetary gift, please give your donation to Ronda Ward, Jerri Casado or bartender on duty.

Thank you, Ronda

P.E.R. Alex Ingalls,
Angela Stone,
Gordon Lymburn.
