

Nicole Ferretti

Assistant Vice President for Financial Planning & Analysis
University of Virginia

Nicole Ferretti joined the University of Virginia as the Assistant Vice President for Financial Planning & Analysis in 2015. In this role, she is responsible for the multi-year financial plan, annual budget and the University's financial model. Prior to joining UVa, Nicole served in budget roles at both Drexel University and Saint Joseph's University. Before moving to the higher education sector, Nicole held positions in accounting and audit for GMAC Mortgage and Aramark Corporation.

Nicole earned a BS in Accounting from Gwynedd-Mercy University and a Master of Business Administration from Saint Joseph's University. She is a 2016 graduate of the Virginia Network for Women in High Education's Senior Leadership Seminar. She also completed the Charlottesville/Albemarle Chamber of Commerce's Leadership Charlottesville program and Drexel Leaders 2020. Nicole has presented on higher education budget topics at several conferences; including the National Association of Colleges and University business Officers' (NACUBO) Annual Meeting and Planning & Budgeting Forum.

In addition to serving on the Virginia Network Board, Nicole is the treasurer for both the Brownsville Elementary School PTO and Hessian Hills Community Home Owners Association.
