

Geriatric Care Specialist (New York, NY)

Duties:

Develop and maintain care plans; Provide in-home assessment of needs; Develop and maintain care plans in accordance with need; Provide individual counseling and group work for caregivers and receivers which may include, but not limited to: depression, anxiety, bereavement, psychosomatic illnesses, family reconciliation, maladaptive behaviors, cross-cultural barriers/ stress, dementia; Provide appropriate referral for serious behavioral health issues; Provide training/education for caregivers and support groups; Coordinate provisions and purchase of temporary relief for eligible caregivers in the form of congregate or in-home respite services; Provide in-home assessment of care recipients to determine ADL/eligibility; Coordinate Services with health professionals as needed.

Minimum Job Requirement:

Education: Master's Degree in Social Work.

If you are interested, email cover letter and resume to Hamilton-Madison House, Inc. at hrdept@hmhonline.org