

Tracy Youth Soccer League – Adult Code of Conduct for Parents

Dear Parents

Welcome to a new season of TYSL, we hope that season will be a fun and positive experience for all.

Responsibilities of Parent:

- 1. Parents must stand 3 feet behind the touch lines (sidelines), This is for the safety of the players and the assistant referees. Soccer is no different than any other organized sport which keeps a safe distance between spectators and the participants.
- 2. Do not abuse the officials. Be POSITIVE! CHEER! ENCOURAGE! Good play for all players playing. Children hear your tone of voice more than your words, so even if you think you're being positive, your voice may tell a different story. In TYSL, the main goal is that the kids have a good time. They just want to play and not have their parents yelling at them through out the game. A basic interest of TYSL is encouragement and positive play. Cheer good plays by both teams. Your child may have friends on the other side of the field.
- 3. Support your coach in a positive manner, they are volunteering time to coach and teach your child the game of soccer. Please volunteer and assist where needed on your child's team your coach will appreciate the additional help.
- 4. At anytime if you feel that you have any issues in regards to soccer please locate the TYSL Board member at your site or ask to speak to the TYSL Parent Advocate.
