

ANNOUNCEMENTS

ANTIRACISM SPEAKER TO SPEAK AT UNIVERSITY — Ibram X Kendi, a best-selling author, will speak on "How to Be an Antiracist" at the University on February 27th at 7:30 in Schofield Hall. This is a continuation of last fall's Wednesday night discussion on racism, Jack Rokser would like to get a group together to go out to eat and then to the University. If you are interested please contact Jack at 715-577-2292 or see him after the service. If you would like to just attend, you can get your tickets online or at the University Service Center.

ASH WEDNESDAY — Our service will begin at 7pm on February 26th.

BASEMENT SURPLUS SALE — Again today after worship. All items are staged or labeled "Surplus". Free-will offerings can be paid to Sheri Wahlin. Please see Sheri with any questions.

ELCB AMBASSADOR NEWS — Ambassadors! – thanks for your work to be the eyes, ears and contacts as we welcome new friends into the community! Please let the Pastor know of new families that we can contact with an ambassador welcome bag. This is an important way for our church to be both welcoming and inviting. All our church members can also be ambassadors by being aware of who's moving in and out of your neighborhood and letting the church know. Thanks, Evangelism Ministry Team

MISSION COALITION NEWS — Please check out our Mission Coalition Bulletin Board in the fellowship hall. It's a clearing house for caring and service events in our community. Currently we are highlighting the February Coalition minutes and supporting the community garden by the Tech School in Chippewa Falls.
