

MONNIE M. BIETY
BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH

Monnie M. Biety has worked as an independent consultant with credit unions and MFIs worldwide for over 19 years. She specializes in regulation and supervision issues for small financial institutions and leading classroom and “hands-on” training in accounting, financial analysis, the regulatory examination process, and internal and external auditing. Her principal clients include: World Council of Credit Unions (WOCCU), World Bank, United Nations Development Program (UNDP), Asian Development Bank (ADB), ACDI/VOCA, and numerous central banks. When she is not working internationally, she performs external and compliance audits and provides other advisory services for U.S. based credit union. Prior to her work as a consultant, she spent 10 years working for NCUA (U.S. credit union regulator and insurer) as a principal credit union examiner and an economic development specialist.

Ms. Biety has an M.B.A. with an emphasis in accounting and finance from the University of Colorado at Boulder and a B.A. in Journalism from Creighton University in Omaha, Nebraska. She speaks English fluently and has a working knowledge of Spanish.