President's Message

Greetings!

As I write this letter I am enjoying an evening with a little snow covering the bare trees with a lovely whiteness. We have had some cold but there has been little snow and this one has lasted for a few hours. It is just the way I like it - a nice covering but not enough to make driving difficult, and just a little to shovel.

It is always so good to see you at our general meetings. The many activities have provided all of us, the hearty souls, a way to enjoy this wintertime and spend time getting to know each other better.

I encourage you to consider the volunteer group. Each of us has something to contribute. The other reality is that we may have issues that other members would be happy with which to assist. Attending the last get together I became aware of resources that I had not realized existed among our members.

I understand many of you checked for name tags for others you know who were not at the meeting. Thank you. I encourage all of us to do that monthly. Name tags assist with limiting the embarrassment when we cannot remember someone's name. Also, when I was at the theater for Dinner and a Movie the clerk saw my name tags and gave me one for one of our members who had lost hers there. It certainly identifies us as a group.

We also have many directories that have not been picked up yet. If you do not have a directory and do not attend the general meetings, ask a friend to collect one for you. Lastly, when you attend a monthly meeting it is always nice to greet our friends. I encourage you, however, to welcome a new member and assist them in feeling comfortable in a room full of strangers.

I look forward to seeing you at Liam's to celebrate St. Patrick's Day and to enjoy our annual joint meeting with Encore. Good wishes for a warming March!

Margaret Souza
President

The Falmouth Newcomers fiscal and membership year runs from July 1 to June 30. New members may join Newcomers by submitting an application and paying applicable dues anytime during the fiscal year. For those who apply from July 1 to March 31, their first year of membership will be that fiscal year. Although the annual fee for those joining between January 1 to March 31 will be at a reduced rate, their first membership year will also be that fiscal year. For those who join from April 1 to June 30, their first year of dues and membership will be applied to the following fiscal year.

Dues and applications for returning members are due by May 31 for the following fiscal year.

Shamrock Luncheon

If you think the Cape experience is just about its sandy ocean beaches, think again. Meet at Gus Cauty Recreational Center to hear Susan Bauer who has written, among other titles, A Guide to the Best Ponds on Cape Cod AND the Best Ways of Preserving Them. An avid swimmer, Susan has explored the wealth of Cape ponds from Bourne to Eastham. She has become somewhat of an expert on the flora and fauna of the waters, and wants to share her photos, pictures, and knowledge to create stewards of these special places. Additionally, this writer/artist has recently shown her lovely collages at the Falmouth Art Center.

For the fee of $5, each participant will receive a copy of her book. After her talk, those who want to will walk together to DJ's to enjoy lunch together.

Sneak Preview: April General Meeting

Farm to Table Extravaganza

Date and Time: Thursday, April 11, 2019 7:00 p.m.

Location: First Congregational Church, 68 Main Street, Falmouth

The essence of good living is captured in good food, good friendships and good health.

Newcomers program for April seeks to capture all three. Come and explore with friends the wide diversity of farmers and food opportunities from hot pepper sauces to sweet honey in the greater Falmouth area. Meet the talented farmers who will present a farm to table extravaganza which will include master gardeners, the community garden working group, Coonamessett farm, Falmouth farmers market, the agricultural commission and Farming Falmouth.

As Anthony Bourdain once commented, "Your body is not a temple. It's an amusement park. Enjoy the ride."

Group Activity Updates

You may join an activity at any point in the year. Some are easier to join in the September-October timeframe as groups get established for the year—even so, you may join late. Others are completely flexible and easily add participants at any time. Check out the activities list at the end of the newsletter or be in touch with the Vice President of Activities, Christina Brodie (falmouthnewcomersactivities@gmail.com) if you have ANY questions.

Reminder: You must be a current member of Newcomers or Encore to participate in any activity.

NEWS ABOUT ACTIVITIES:

LUNCH & LEARN: Mark your calendar for Wednesday, March 20th from 11:00 a.m. to 12:00. If you think the Cape experience is just about its sandy ocean beaches, think again. Meet at Gus Cauty Recreational Center to hear Susan Bauer who has written, among other titles, A Guide to the Best Ponds on Cape Cod AND the Best Ways of Preserving Them. An avid swimmer, Susan has explored the wealth of Cape ponds from Bourne to Eastham. She has become somewhat of an expert on the flora and fauna of the waters, and wants to share her photos, pictures, and knowledge to create stewards of these special places. Additionally, this writer/artist has recently shown her lovely collages at the Falmouth Art Center.

For the fee of $5, each participant will receive a copy of her book. After her talk, those who want to will walk together to DJ's to enjoy lunch together. Use the BLUE Coupon to register for this interesting event!

MEN'S GOLF CHANGE: For 2019, all play will be on Wednesday only at the Falmouth Country Club. May to October: early group be there by 7:30 a.m., tee off at 8:00 a.m. Late group be there by 8:00 a.m. for tee off at 8:30 a.m. This winter, when weather permits, come at 8:30 to tee off at 9:00 a.m.

Shellfish Training

If you wish to know more about Shell Fishing, block out on your calendar Friday, April 26 at 10 AM at the Gus Cauty Center for a Shellfish Education program.

Preliminary plans are to have the Falmouth Marine & Environmental people do an education session on what equipment is needed to shellfish, how to shellfish, how to open/store/cook shellfish.

We will try to have fresh shellfish on hand and ask an expert from The Clam Man to demonstrate opening techniques. Shellfish will be consumed by the attendees.

Details to follow in the April Newsletter.

Open to all Newcomers and Encore members as well as the general public. Invite your friends and relatives.

Encore Announcement

SAVE THE DATE: THEATER PARTY

Encore will be sponsoring a trip to attend the Falmouth Theater Guild's production of the musical "9 to 5" on Sunday, May 5 at 2:00 p.m. Coupons and more details will be available in the next newsletter. Newcomer members are invited to also attend.

Minutes of General Meeting February 14, 2019

Minutes of General Meeting, February 14, 2019

Margaret Souza, President of Newcomers, called the meeting to order at 10 AM. She introduced herself and welcomed the group as a whole, thanking everyone for coming. The minutes from the January 10th General Meeting were accepted as written in the Newsletter.

Margaret requested that new members stand and introduce themselves, asking that they include where they were from and what brought them to Newcomers. Four new members introduced themselves. She then welcomed the Encore members in attendance, asking them to stand and be recognized.

Lisa Travaly, Hospitality Co-Chair, thanked the members who had provided refreshments and passed around a sign-up sheet for the April and May general meetings. Margaret also asked those who provided refreshments to stand and be recognized. Margaret continued on to recognize Ginny Palmieri, our Recording Secretary, who has taken minutes of both the board and general meetings for the last two years.

Jane Murphy, a VP of Programs, reminded those in attendance that the next general meeting is the luncheon at Liam's on March 14th. There are still spots available, but it is filling up quickly, so get your coupons in ASAP.

Next, Jane introduced Kevin Fitzgerald and Linda Peters from the Falmouth Commodores. The Commodores are members of the Cape Cod Baseball League, which uses wooden bats and recruits the top collegiate players from across the United States. The Commodore players teach morning baseball clinics to boys and girls ages 5 to 14. They also have a Kids Club which sponsors events for members at Guv Fuller field prior to home games. The Commodores are also looking for year-round and seasonal volunteers to help with fundraising, housing, fan and community relations, the golf tournament, clothing/merchandising, baseball clinics and scholarships. Kevin and Linda will stay after the meeting if you have any question or want to volunteer. The business meeting ended at 10:11 AM.

Karen Baranowski, a VP of Programs, introduced the members of the panel who will be discussing The End of Life. Ellen McCabe, RN is a Certified Hospice Nurse who works for the VNA of Cape Cod. Margaret Souza is a Medical Anthropologist and Clinical Social Worker who has conducted research on death. The last member is Carmen Deraleau who works with the pastoral counselor who couldn't come because he was ill. Some of the points they made were that most of the patients in hospice do not identify with dying, but rather with living the best life they can; hospice supports them in achieving this goal while caring for the whole person. Words that are important to the sick individual include thank you, I love you, I forgive you, and please forgive me. They stressed that having a Health Care Proxy is very important and that you should have conversations about your wishes with your family/significant others. You should select an individual who has the strength to stand up to medical professionals and you should choose a doctor who believes the same things you do about end of life care. The program concluded at 10:50 AM. Many members stayed after the program to speak with Karen, Ellen, Margaret and Carmen.

Respectfully submitted,
Ginny Palmieri, Recording Secretary

Mix and Mingle

Date and Time: Saturday, April 27 6:30 - 9:00 p.m.

Mix and Mingles are held in Newcomers' homes throughout the year. It is a wonderful opportunity for both couples and singles to get to know one another.

To sign up please send an email to Diane Fidurko. Deadline for sign ups is April 20th or when the host homes' capacity has been reached. Once you have signed up, you will receive an email 5 days before the event with the name and address of your host. You will also receive instructions to bring either a hearty hors d'oeuvre or a dessert to share with the group along with your own beverage. The host will provide coffee.

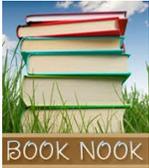

Since Mix and Mingles are popular events, it is best to email your response as soon as you receive your newsletter.

Hosting an event is easy. All you have to do is provide a welcoming home, paper products, water and coffee. If you would be willing to host a Mix and Mingle, please email either Susan Gilbert or Ginny Palmieri with the month you would be able to host.

Help Wanted!

We need folks to volunteer to work on the committee to help out with the Spring Dance scheduled for Friday, May 3. The venue and band are secured, but there are lots of details that need tending to – more than Joyce and Jeanne can handle by themselves. So if you want to help out, please contact Joyce joyce.ludensky@gmail.com or Jeanne jeannefortier@comcast.net. Thank You!

The Dinner

by Herman Koch Recommended by Mary Cassidy

It's a summer's evening in Amsterdam, and two couples meet at a fashionable restaurant for dinner. Between the mouthfuls of food and over the scrapings of cutlery, the conversation remains a gentle hum of polite discourse. But behind the empty words, terrible things need to be said, and with every forced smile and every new course, the knives are being sharpened.

Each couple has a fifteen-year-old son. The two boys are united by their accountability for a single horrific act—an act that triggered a police investigation and shattered the comfortable, insulated worlds of their families. As the dinner reaches its culinary climax, the conversation finally touches on their children, and as civility and friendship disintegrate, each couple shows just how far they are prepared to go to protect those they love.

Have you read a book that you love? Would you or your book club like to recommend a book you have read?

Please email or call Marion Bihari if you would like to suggest a book or author.
