Social Services Report

Did you ever wonder why there is a different list for Social Services collection each month? We do that to help spread out the items we collect but still keep the shelves stocked with pertinent groceries. It became clear that it is working last month when we delivered to them. The person who received them complimented us on the donations and especially that it was done with specific items each month. She said that they liked the organization it afforded them.

YOU are doing a Great service for our community!
Thank you!

SON-DAY Suppers!

This month's topic is "What's in YOUR backpack" What are you carrying?

Please bring back to school supplies to donate to kids in foster care if you like.

Mawmaw's cooking her Fried chicken and green beans, Debby's got the mac and cheese and biscuits. Dessert is Banana pudding!

Invite your family and friends. Sign up sheet in the fellowship hall – And look for event on Facebook to sign up too!

Our first Son-Day supper went well with 35 in attendance. We went with Jesus to the beach.

Sand, Surf and the Son were our conversation starters! Ask us about how to ride a wave with the Lord! The barbeque was wonderful. Team work brought it together. Help us keep improving with your feedback!

The Outreach team would like to welcome our Teen representatives to the team – Emily Woodward and Lizzie Haines. They've already given us great ideas!
