• FREE TOUR - Our member, Adam Sternglass, has offered a free tour of NYC. (adamsys47@gmail.com or http://www.intoursnyc.com/ (917) 355-5223) This walking tour would start next Tuesday, August 14, at Penn Station, NYC at 1000. Duration = four hours. I was hoping we could take a train together. Park at Elizabeth. I will talk about how the needs of real estate and telecommunications shaped the architecture and civil engineering of New York. We will walk up 8th Avenue from 33 Street to 42nd Street. I will stop five times to talk about why certain buildings are oddly shaped. Why the big antennas on top of buildings. Advertising space. Bathroom break at Port Authority, 8th Avenue. Next, one subway ride to

Broadway and 125th Street. I'll also talk about Harlem, Columbia, New Jersey and the George Washington Bridge. 1. Panel Antennas and big transceivers 2. The Telecommunications at the Empire State Building (shoulders and mast) 3. The odd setback of new buildings because of building codes. Same for some old buildings. 4. Sliver Buildings. 5. • ASARA B' TEVES – The fast begins at 6:09 am and ends at 5:19 pm Shacharis will be at 6:10 am. This event is mentioned in the second book of Melachim (Kings) (25:1), where we are told that "And it came to pass in the ninth year of his reign, in the tenth month, in the tenth day of the month, that Nevuchadnezzar, king of Bavel came, with all his troops, upon Jerusalem…." At the time of this siege, there were already Jews who were in exile in Bavel, where the prophet Yechezkel (Ezekiel) lived. Hashem came to Yechezkel in a prophecy, to inform him of the siege of Jerusalem. This prophecy is related to us in the Book of Yechezkel (24:1): "And in the ninth year, in the tenth month, on the tenth day of the month, the word of Hashem came to me, saying 'Son of man, write the name of the day, of this same day – the king of Bavel has laid siege on Jerusalem on this very day….'"
