Jenks Alumni Kenneth W. Ishmael Class of 1939

Larry Ishmael

My father, Kenneth W. Ishmael, is a graduate of Jenks High in the Class of 1939. He set many records during his playing days there, and the one he remembers the most is his 101 punt return for a touchdown. The punt was blocked and they counted it from the point in the end zone rather than from the plane of the goal line. Dad was coached by his older brother, my uncle, Emmett Ishmael. Since then there have been other Ishmaels coaching Trojan football, my cousin Bill Ishmael and his sons Kevin and Mike Ishmael. There have been many more Ishmaels play for the Trojans over the years, but the most outstanding one was my father (per the family books). He went on to the Service during WW II and then became a U.S. Postal Inspector (federal law enforcement position similar to the FBI). Respectfully submitted: Larry Ishmael
