

DAVID RHYS MORRIS

David graduated drama school with a distinction in Musical Theatre as well as achieving the “Student of the Year” award.

Theatre credits include lead role in Oliver!, Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat (UK Tour, Bill Kenwright), Anthony in Sweeney Todd (Riverfront Theatre, Newport), Peter in Peter Pan (Owen Money Theatre Company), Prince Charming in Cinderella (Forum Theatre, Barrow-In-Furness), Milton in Geek Tragedy (Wales Millennium Centre, Cardiff), Neil Sedaka in Jukebox Heroes II (Wales Theatre Tour), Jersey Boys Tribute Show: The Valli Boys (Theatre Tour) and West-End showcases at The Criterion Theatre & Her Majesty’s Theatre, London.

A recent highlight includes performing backing vocals for Michael Ball in a televised concert for the BBC.

As part of The Cardiff International Festival of Musical Theatre, David played Tommy Farr opposite Mal Pope in a Gala Concert production The Contender (The Sherman Theatre, Cardiff).

Television appearances include Hope and Glory (BBC), Showtime Wales! (BBC), Wedi 7 (S4C), Caerdydd (S4C/Fiction Factory), Gavin & Stacey (BBC) and Michael Ball: Showtime (BBC Wales).

Film credits; The Testimony of Taliesin Jones (Snake River Productions).

David also runs an award-winning stage school, Fame Factory Theatre School and won the ‘Best Male Vocalist’ award from the South Wales Entertainment Federation. He has performed all over the world for cruise liners such as P&O and Marella.