

2019 Brigade Lecture Series

Lectures are held on Thursdays at 7:00 pm. Seating is limited.

- March 28 “The Concord Theatre—Yesterday, Today & Tomorrow”
Paul Brogan, Concord Native and Author
- April 25 “The Music History of French Canadians, Franco-Americans & Arcadians/Cajuns”
Lucie Therrien, Song Writer, Recording Artist & Author
Sponsored by New Hampshire Humanities
- May 18 & 19 Gardener’s Weekend/ 2nd Annual Heirloom Plant Sale
(Sat. 4-7pm; Sun 10am-2pm)
in partnership with Canterbury Plantation
- May 23 “New Hampshire’s One-Room School Houses”
Steve Taylor, Farmer, Journalist & Lifelong student of NH rural culture
Sponsored by New Hampshire Humanities
- June 27 “Quakers in NH—History and Present Day”
Marian Baker, The International Historian for USFWS
- July 25 Open House & Ice Cream Social (5:30-6:30pm)
Band Concert on the Lawn (7:00pm). Bring a chair.
Music by The 39th US Army Band—NH Army National Guard
- August 22 “Founders & Patriots: The Society of the Cincinnatti”
Emma Bray, Executive Director, American Independence Museum
- Sept. 26 “The Settlement of Hillsborough”
Christina Chadwick, Curator the Hillsborough Heritage Museum
- Oct. 24 “Lincoln and His Generals”
Jim Miller, Director of Institutional Research, Granite State College
- Nov. 26 Official Remembrance of Franklin Pierce’s Birthday (10:00am)
NH National Guard Wreath Laying at Old North Cemetery
Reception at the Manse to follow.

All programs are free and open to the public.

The Pierce Brigade

The Brigade Lecture Series is sponsored by the Pierce Brigade, the all volunteer organization that saved and continues to operate President Franklin Pierce’s historic Concord home.

* The Pierce Manse is located at 14 Horseshoe Pond, Concord, New Hampshire 03301 *