President Letter – July 2018

Sun Prairie and Meant to Bead

You probably heard about the building that exploded in Sun Prairie on July 10th. Meant to Bead is a block away; Shannon and her employees and customers were evacuated by police just before the explosion. Per Shannon's Facebook posts and as of this writing, the store will be closed for a few days at least. She doesn't know if there is any structural damage, but some things shifted and the utilities are out. More information: City of Sun Prairie ; Relief Fund: Bank of Sun Prairie

Shannon, we're thinking about you and keep posting updates.
