

We are pleased to announce the new Autism Alliance Lending Library. Please note that the titles are organized alphabetically based on their primary category. A secondary category is listed to provide you more information about the book or DVD.

We would like to thank Dannemora Federal Credit Union for their generous donation which helped make this lending library possible. Some of these titles were donated to Autism Alliance by individuals, and we would like to thank each individual donor as well. Please note that we are not endorsing the contents, views and/or opinions expressed in any specific book or DVD, but are simply attempting to make information available to our community.

If you wish to borrow a book or video from the library, please email admin@aaneny.org with the title, your full name, address, and phone number.
