Student Edition

Boardman Band Gatlinburg Trip December, 2018

GENERAL INFORMATION

The Boardman Spartan Marching Band will entertain a crowd of over 80,000 people in the Gatlinburg "Fantasy of Lights" Christmas Parade in Gatlinburg, Tennessee. The 43rd edition of this nighttime parade kicks off the official lighting of the Christmas displays in downtown Gatlinburg. It will feature lighted floats, balloons, local performers, and marching bands. This is an amazing honor that only a relatively small number of high school groups can claim. We can add this to the long list of prestigious national events in which the Boardman Bands have appeared. Such events are proof that we are upholding a "Tradition of Musical Excellence." Keep this in mind as we prepare for this trip.

Check an extended forecast online, look at the itinerary, and plan accordingly. Prepare to wear light layers for the parade. You can decide if you need it under your uniform based on the forecast for that day. A rain jacket and hoodie would be good to have based on the current forecast. #### GUIDELINES AND RULES

Traveling with a group this large demands certain standards of behavior. So much is expected of the group and of its individual members. It is imperative that everyone remember that they are representatives of the group and the school at all times. Even when we are not performing, we must conduct ourselves as though we have an audience. Negative behavior by an individual almost always reflects back on the whole group. We've all worked too hard to have our reputation tarnished. Therefore, you must discipline yourself to function within the structure of the group. You need to understand the necessity of specific rules and guidelines, and the necessity to constantly monitor your behavior. If you do, you should have an enjoyable and rewarding experience.

- The most important thing you'll need is Mr. Ruggieri's "Common Sense" rule: Any behavior which causes or is likely to cause disruption, destruction, and/or injury is prohibited.
- > This trip is a school function. All school rules will be in effect throughout the entire trip.
- Do not use profanity, obscenities, or profane or obscene gestures.
- > Be polite to everyone with whom you associate.
- Be on time for every activity. Tardiness by even one student could cause the entire Band to be delayed or to miss the next event.
- Do not go beyond established boundaries. This includes food stops en route.
- ➤ Know who your chaperones are. Report to them whenever attendance is to be taken.
- Respect the possessions, privacy, and space of others.
- Obnoxious behavior on the buses or in the hotel will not be tolerated.
- Inappropriate discussions, singing, comments, media is not permitted.
- Always treat the chaperones and directors with respect.
- Do not engage in public displays of affection.
- Curfew times will be enforced.
- > Boys are not permitted in girls' rooms and girls are not permitted in boys' rooms at any time.
- Do not loiter in hotel hallways.
- Respect hotel property and bus property.
- Always follow standard rehearsal/performance procedures: listen for directions, get quiet immediately when a director or chaperone is speaking, etc.
- Luggage and carry-ons are subject to inspections by chaperones.
- Do not bring unsealed beverage containers on the bus.
- No co-ed seating on buses after dark.
- Students are not to share blankets on the buses.

FINAL REMINDERS

Students must make some adjustments in their usual routine in order to do well on this trip. They must understand that traveling with 160 people is a lot different than traveling with the family. You cannot get your way like you may be used to at home. We have done our best to give everyone an enjoyable experience; but there is no way to make everyone happy all of the time. Complaining about what you don't like will not accomplish anything except annoyance. Instead of complaining, try to find some constructive way to enjoy what you are doing.

Make sure you listen for directions and any changes in the given times. The lack of listening to directions has caused many problems for us on trips. Don't let that happen on this trip. Never guess about times, curfews, procedures, etc. If you are unsure about anything, ask a chaperone or director. Many of you have gotten into trouble by making your friends your only source of information. Be honest with yourselves and with your friends if you are unsure about anything.

Take pride in your band, school, and community. Remember your responsibilities as a representative of band, school, community, your family, and yourself.

TIPS

- Be prepared for the weather by having options. Bring an extra hoodie or jacket to leave on the bus just in case.
- When we get on the buses on Friday afternoon, you should be wearing street clothes. Bring your grocery bag with uniform accessories (Dinkles/boots, gloves, socks, t-shirt) with you.
- Jazz Ensemble 1 members should come to breakfast on Saturday in their performance clothes and have street clothes in a garment bag for after the performance.
- I suggest eating a big breakfast on Friday when we arrive. Dinner will be on your own in Gatlinburg between 2:15 and 5:00pm. If you eat a big breakfast, you might only need a light, inexpensive snack for lunch in Pigeon Forge.
- For our dinner stop on the way home, you will be given only $5 cash. Our stop is at a mall food court in Morgantown, WV. If you don't think you can get enough food for $5, save some of your own spending money or plan to eat a big meal at our lunch stop (buffet).
