

All We Have Is HIS Alone.

by Jason Hardin Charlestown Rd. church of Christ New Albany, Indiana

The earth is the LORD's and all that fills it, the world and those who dwell therein.

That's how Psalm 24 begins.

This planet? It belongs to God. Everything that fills this world - from the depths of the Mariana Trench, 36,070 feet below sea level, to the heights of Mount Everest, 29,029 feet above sea level - it's all God's.

Are you up for a perspective-shaping mental exercise? Use Psalm 24:1 to really see today...

That bird you heard chirping this morning? It's God's.

That tree blossoming with the colors of Spring? God's.

That flower emerging from the ground? God's.

That air you're breathing right now. God's.

Those lungs you're using to breathe that air? God's.

That person - every person, in fact - with whom you interact today? God's. Each one, uniquely created in his image.

What difference could it make in your day and throughout your week if you used Psalm 24:1 as a corrective lens to see as your Father in heaven sees?

The earth is the LORD's and all that fills it, the world and those who dwell therein.

Such seeing drives our hearts to worship. It's our privilege to worship him today. Let's give him everything we have to give. After all, as the old hymn reminds...

We give Thee but Thine own, what'er the gift may be;
all that we have is Thine alone;
a trust, O LORD, from Thee. (William Walsham How, 1858)

Sherry Carter would like to meet with the ladies in the back of the auditorium near the Picture Board after services this morning. It concerns meals for Diane Mellott who is home recuperating from recent hip surgery.

It was nice to see Sharron Gantt visit with us last Sunday. Last Sunday was also her birthday.

Denise Garlitz says to tell everyone hello.

If... then... If we believe that Jesus is the only way to salvation; if we believe those separated from Christ are lost; if we believe we are His ambassadors; and if we believe that God hears and answers the prayers of His children – then can we not put these all together and pray that God would send us opportunities to share Jesus with others in our lives? Can we pray that God will open our eyes to those opportunities and the courage to seize those opportunities?

3-10 Select three people in your world, in your life, and in your sphere and pray for them 10 minutes a day. Last week we committed ourselves to the 3 – 10 prayer plan.

Pick three, pray for 10 minutes a day. Pray for opportunities, for open eyes to see them, and pray for the courage to share Jesus.
