

Name _____

Directions: Fill out each box. Each box will get bigger as you type into it. Each body paragraph will be created by putting together boxes 2-6.

Body Paragraph One

1. Topic of this Paragraph. This will NOT get copied into your paragraph. Who will you prove is a “mockingbird” in this paragraph?

2. Introductory Sentence. Write one sentence to introduce the person and the basic reason that you believe he/she is a “mockingbird.”

3. Simple Retelling. Write 2-3 sentences to explain in your own words the situation(s) that help prove this person is a “mockingbird.”

4. Evidence from the Book. Write your quote or paraphrase that will help you provide evidence that this person is a “mockingbird.” Be sure to INTRODUCE YOUR QUOTE OR PARAPHRASE by saying who said it and when he/she said it.

5. Explain your Evidence. Write 2-3 sentences to explain in your own words how this example helps prove this person is a “mockingbird.”

6. Conclusion Sentence. Restate why this person is a “mockingbird.”

Body Paragraph Two

1. Topic of this Paragraph. This will NOT get copied into your paragraph. Who will you prove is a “mockingbird” in this paragraph?

2. Introductory Sentence. Write one sentence to introduce the person and the basic reason that you believe he/she is a “mockingbird.”

3. Simple Retelling. Write 2-3 sentences to explain in your own words the situation(s) that help prove this person is a “mockingbird.”

4. Evidence from the Book. Write your quote or paraphrase that will help you provide evidence that this person is a “mockingbird.” Be sure to INTRODUCE YOUR QUOTE OR PARAPHRASE by saying who said it and when he/she said it.

5. Explain your Evidence. Write 2-3 sentences to explain in your own words how this example helps prove this person is a “mockingbird.”

6. Conclusion Sentence. Restate why this person is a “mockingbird.”

Body Paragraph Three

1. Topic of this Paragraph. This will NOT get copied into your paragraph. Who will you prove is a “mockingbird” in this paragraph?

2. Introductory Sentence. Write one sentence to introduce the person and the basic reason that you believe he/she is a “mockingbird.”

3. Simple Retelling. Write 2-3 sentences to explain in your own words the situation(s) that help prove this person is a “mockingbird.”

4. Evidence from the Book. Write your quote or paraphrase that will help you provide evidence that this person is a “mockingbird.” Be sure to INTRODUCE YOUR QUOTE OR PARAPHRASE by saying who said it and when he/she said it.

5. Explain your Evidence. Write 2-3 sentences to explain in your own words how this example helps prove this person is a “mockingbird.”

6. Conclusion Sentence. Restate why this person is a “mockingbird.”