

Therapist's Ethics Statement

I fully understand and agree that any information I provide to clients concerning my background and work history shall be accurate. Client information shall not be discussed with or revealed to any non-clinic individuals. I will only discuss client information with the clinic staff, on a need-to-know basis. When I am responsible for professional service provision, I shall provide these services with dignity and respect. I understand and agree to be bound by applicable state laws and relevant accreditation standards, and to avoid any conflict of ethics or beliefs that conflict with those of a client to the extent that it influences my ability to provide appropriate treatment. I understand that I have the right and ethical obligation to request case transfer in such situations. Further, I agree to familiarize myself with the Recipient Rights law and policies, to be accountable for conducting myself in accordance with said laws and policies, and to report any client care concerns to my supervisor or the Recipient Rights Officer.

I agree with and support the following statements from the Mission Statement and Ethical Stance.
