A MESSAGE FROM WALK #185 LAY DIRECTOR

It doesn't seem possible that 124 walks ago I was preparing for my original Walk #61, and now I'm preparing to help lead with the Holy Spirit on Walk 185. When I arrived at camp on my original walk I quickly realized that I only vaguely recognized one person. It wasn't long until the Holy Spirit let me know that we all had something in common and that was Him. Yes, the Holy Spirit helped us all through those awkward moments trying to express ourselves at the tables, to draw posters, and perform those wild skits. Through it all He was helping us to break down walls and release our hurts and failures to Him in order to strengthen our witness for Him.

As I have come back and served on numerous walks in the conference room and in the background support, God just continues to bless me and strengthen my walk with Him. I thank God for this conference room team and support team. You have already been a blessing to me and I'm sure as we enter this "greatest walk ever" that God is going to use each of you in a special way to bless the lives of the pilgrims that will be on Walk 185.

My prayer is that we come empty and prepare to leave full. God will not let us down. I am counting on Him and he is counting on Us. Thank you for your prayers, support, and service.

De Colores!

A MESSAGE FROM WALK #185 SPIRITUAL DIRECTOR

In the Gospel of Mark, there is the story of a man who is blind and comes to Jesus to heal him. Jesus, looks at the man, and asks, “What do you need me to do?” As we enter Walk 185, Jesus is still asking all of us the same question. I am reminded of the banner that hangs outside Dying Moment that say’s “I have been waiting for you.” I believe that even though Jesus knows our struggles, He wants us to recognize those things in our own life and bring them all to Him.

In I Peter 5: 7, Jesus said, “Cast all your cares on me, for I care for you.” My prayer for Walk 185 is whatever the Pilgrims have been carrying around, those things that have prevented them from becoming the men that God has called them to be, they will leave with Jesus at Dying Moments. This will only happen if we pray. Please join with me and the Conference Room Team, as we lift up the men of Walk 185, and pray that God’s will be done on earth as He would have it done in heaven.

God Bless
