FROM OUR PRESIDENT

Hi Ladies:
 Time to say hello again. It has been a while. We had our first Board Meeting of the year last week and welcomed some new ladies which was nice. Sue Horn will be our new Treasurer, while Judy Galloway is teaming up with Brenda Jones keeping track of all of us at Membership. Bunny Hayden, Debra Pollock, and a new newcomer, Anita Blackwelder, are taking over the reins from Barbara Kalicki who did a wonderful job as Outreach committee chair. For their first outing, they will be collecting for military families. Ronnie and Linda are partners again, and they are busy lining up fundraising activities for us. Louise Gallagher is our new Recording Secretary. Also, as some of you read the Chatter, you may think some of the pages were lost or misplaced. The new format is the brainchild of Karyll Shaw and the new Chatter Editor Carol Smith. It is now concise with a lot of the minutia removed. Let us know how you like it. Some of the other members are remaining in last year's positions and are quite experienced, so we are in good hands. Lots of things are being planned. Be sure to join in.

Have a wonderful July! - Joan Bové

REACHING OUT WITH OUTREACH

Outreach Chairs: Anita Blackwelder, Bunny Hayden, Debra Pollock

Hello Ladies! We look forward to chairing the Outreach Program this year as we plan to continue to make a difference in Central Florida via your strong support for various charities including Russell Home for Atypical Children, Libby's Legacy, Apopka farm families, Girls & Boys Club, Boys Town, Orlando Outreach Rescue Mission, Woodbury Pantry, and more.

At the July luncheon, we will collect monetary donations to aid military families. If you prefer to write a check, please make it payable to: Newcomers of Central Florida. Each dollar makes a difference!

Ongoing, we will collect the following at each luncheon:

- Personal items for the homeless - hotel size toiletries are great
- Aluminum tabs for Ronald McDonald House
- Clean used blankets, towels, small rugs, and any dog or cat items for ASPCA, a division of the Humane Society

Should you have any questions, please contact Debra at 407-501-2408. Thank you for your support!
