

SAVE THE DATE TRAINING OPPORTUNITY

ADVERSE CHILDHOOD EXPERIENCES AND INTERVENTIONS

WHEN: JUNE 30, 2017

*(morning and afternoon sessions available)

WHERE: Littler Mental Health Center
2350 W. 3rd Street Road
Greeley CO 80623

North Range Behavioral Health and the 19th Judicial District are happy to present their long-promised training on the Adverse Childhood Experiences study, interventions and treatment for children who have experienced trauma. This training will include:

- ✓ Basic child development
- ✓ Brain development
- ✓ A discussion of the Adverse Childhood Experiences study
(National Institutes of Health and Kaiser Permanente, 1997-on)
- ✓ Interventions and mental health treatment for those who have struggle Adverse Childhood Experiences
- ✓ Implications for lawyers and helping professions

Morning session: 9 a.m. to noon -- Implications for lawyers and professionals working with individuals and families involved in the court system (family law, parental responsibilities, juvenile delinquency, criminal/probation)

Afternoon session: 1:30 p.m. to 4:30 p.m. – Implications for lawyers, caseworkers, treatment providers, Respondent Parent Counsel, and Guardians ad Litem in Dependency and Neglect cases and related matters.