

CMB Disclosure to Borrower Details 2017 Ontario

The following must be added to all your Disclosure to Borrower forms prior to signing up every new client in 2017. This information is used to inform the public and disclose important material facts in an easy to understand format. More importantly these are requirements under the Mortgage Brokerages, Lenders, and Administrators Act, 2006.

Mandatory

Presentation of Disclosure to the Borrower and Amortization 2 Days prior to Presenting Commitment

The Disclosure to Borrower Form and the Amortization Schedule must be presented to all clients 2 business days prior to presenting the Mortgage commitment or Mortgage Approval.

Best Practice – Sign up your client with the complete sign-up package when you are presenting the commitment, and have the client waive the 2 day notice on the Disclosure to Borrower Form along with the complete sign-up package. Failure to do this may result in an administrative penalty from FSCO for every occurrence.

Referral – Referral Fee Paid

If a referral fee or client rebate is paid you must complete this portion of the Disclosure.
