

In Memoriam

2022

*W*hen tomorrow starts without me,
and I'm not there to comfort you, please know that I still love you because I know you love me too.

*W*hen tomorrow starts without me
and you feel lost and blue, I hope these words of comfort will help to see you through.

*S*omeday your sadness will ease and be replaced by fond memories, and tomorrow you will hear
"I love you" whispered in the breeze.
