

SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM

ADVANCING CAREERS
IN REAL ESTATE MANAGEMENT

IREM[®] Foundation scholarships provide partial tuition for up to three IREM[®] courses in either the classroom or on-demand delivery formats. Recipients may reapply for additional scholarships, if needed, upon full use or expiration of any scholarship awarded.

ELIGIBILITY

To qualify for an IREM[®] Foundation scholarship, an applicant must meet one of the following requirements:

- 1 Be a current IREM[®] Member (Academic, ACoM, ARM[®], Associate, CPM[®] Candidate, CPM[®], or Student), have paid current national and chapter dues in full, and express an intent of earning an IREM[®] credential (ARM[®], ACoM, or CPM[®]).
- 2 Be a current employee of an AMO[®] Firm and express an intent of earning an IREM[®] credential (ARM[®], ACoM, or CPM[®]). Upon successful completion of the course(s) paid by a scholarship, an AMO[®] Firm employee may be eligible for a one-year complimentary Associate membership.

APPLICATION

Scholarship applications may be submitted at any time and are reviewed monthly:

- Applications received by the 15th of the month are reviewed that month.
- Applications received after the 15th of a month are reviewed the following month.

TO BE CONSIDERED, A SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION MUST INCLUDE:

- A written statement by the applicant of their intent to earn an IREM[®] credential (ARM[®], ACoM, or CPM[®]). The statement should also express an interest in and a commitment to real estate management as a career, and list any accomplishments of the applicant that support such commitment. If the applicant is part of an underrepresented population group, a description should be provided.
- Current resume.
- Signature of the local IREM[®] Chapter President on the application. To find contact information for IREM[®] Chapters, visit us at www.irem.org/about-irem/chapters
- All information must be provided in English.

SELECTION CRITERIA

The selection of scholarship recipients is based on, but not limited to, these factors:

- ✓ Demonstrated commitment to a career in real estate management.
- ✓ Intent of earning an IREM® credential (ARM®, ACoM, CPM®).
- ✓ Support of IREM® Chapter as endorsed on application.
- ✓ Previous scholarships awarded and activated, including those that may have expired.

The IREM® Foundation conducts the administration of its scholarship program. It has complete and final authority to confer or revoke scholarships, and to make other decisions pertaining to the use of funds in the scholarship program.

AWARDING AND ACTIVATING SCHOLARSHIPS

You will receive written notification via email of scholarships awarded. Once awarded, you will have three months to activate your scholarship by completing a course registration(s) and submitting it with payment to the IREM® Foundation. No extensions will be granted. Course registration information will be provided in your scholarship notification.

PLEASE NOTE: Should you register and pay for a course prior to a scholarship being awarded, you will not be reimbursed. The scholarship can only be applied at the time of the course registration submitted to the IREM® Foundation for processing.

After activating scholarships and completing registrations for all three courses, you may apply for an additional scholarship as long as you continue to meet the eligibility criteria.

ABOUT IREM® FOUNDATION SCHOLARSHIPS

BETTE FEARS, ARM®, SCHOLARSHIP

Bette Fears, ARM®, served as the community manager for ParkPlace Apartments in Coeur'Alene, Idaho. ParkPlace Apartments was a member of Tomlinson Black Management Inc., AMO®. Bette was an active member of the IREM® Inland Northwest Chapter, serving in local and national leadership positions within IREM®. As a member of the Foundation's Scholarship and Grant Committee, Bette brought a sense of caring for all applicants as they exhibited a desire to advance careers in multi-family housing. The purpose of the Fears Scholarship is to assist recipients with the cost of tuition associated with achieving the ARM® certification.

DONALD M. FURBUSH, CPM®, SCHOLARSHIP

Donald M. Furbush, CPM®, was Senior Vice President for BRE Properties, Inc. of San Francisco, heading the company's asset management department. He served as IREM® President in 1990, which capped a leadership commitment that began as president of the IREM® San Francisco Bay Area Chapter. Mr. Furbush also held the Counselor of Real Estate (CRE) and the Real Property Administrator (RPA) designations. He was a member of the Society of Real Property Administrators, Building Owners and Managers Association of San Francisco, and the International Council of Shopping Centers. The purpose of the Furbush Scholarship is to assist recipients with the cost of tuition associated with achieving the CPM® designation.

DIVERSITY SCHOLARSHIP

The Foundation is committed to helping the Institute increase diversity in the real estate management industry and within IREM®. The purpose of the Diversity Scholarship is to assist individuals from underrepresented population groups with the cost of tuition associated with achieving an IREM® credential.

PAUL H. RITTLE, SR., MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

Paul H. Rittle, Sr., CPM®, was president of the Pittsburgh real estate firm Rittle-Rosfeld, which he founded in partnership in 1945. He served as IREM® President in 1972. He played an active role in local and national real estate organizations, having served as president of the Pittsburgh Board of Realtors® in 1966 and chaired the NAREB Make America Better Committee for the state of Pennsylvania. In 1967, he was selected Realtor® of the Year by the Pittsburgh Board. The purpose of the Rittle Scholarship is to assist recipients with the cost of tuition associated with achieving the ACoM certification.
