DAYLIGHT SAVING TIME

On Sunday March 14th

Kyrie

Greek (English)

Kyrie eleison (Lord, Have Mercy)

Christe eleison (Christ, Have Mercy)

Kyrie eleison (Lord, Have Mercy)

First Reading Exodus 20:1-17

In those days, God delivered all these commandments:
“I, the LORD, am your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, that place of slavery. You shall not have other gods besides me. You shall not carve idols for yourselves in the shape of anything in the sky above or on the earth below or in the waters beneath the earth; you shall not bow down before them or worship them. For I, the LORD, your God, am a jealous God, inflicting punishment for their fathers’ wickedness on the children of those who hate me, down to the third and fourth generation; but bestowing mercy down to the thousandth generation on the children of those who love me and keep my commandments.

“You shall not take the name of the LORD, your God, in vain. For the LORD will not leave unpunished the one who takes his name in vain.

“Remember to keep holy the sabbath day.
Six days you may labor and do all your work, but the seventh day is the sabbath of the LORD, your God. No work may be done then either by you, or your son or daughter, or your male or female slave, or your beast, or by the alien who lives with you. In six days the LORD made the heavens and the earth, the sea and all that is in them; but on the seventh day he rested. That is why the LORD has blessed the sabbath day and made it holy.

“Honor your father and your mother,
that you may have a long life in the land
which the LORD, your God, is giving you.
You shall not kill.
You shall not commit adultery.
You shall not steal.
You shall not bear false witness against your neighbor.
You shall not covet your neighbor’s house.
You shall not covet your neighbor’s wife,
nor his male or female slave, nor his ox or ass,
nor anything else that belongs to him.”

Responsorial Psalm

R. Lord, you have the words of everlasting life.

The law of the LORD is perfect,
refreshing the soul;

The decree of the LORD is trustworthy,
giving wisdom to the simple.

R. Lord, you have the words of everlasting life.

The precepts of the LORD are right,
rejoicing the heart;
the command of the LORD is clear,
enlightening the eye.

R. Lord, you have the words of everlasting life.

The fear of the LORD is pure,
enduring forever;
the ordinances of the LORD are true,
all of them just.

R. Lord, you have the words of everlasting life.

They are more precious than gold,
than a heap of purest gold;
sweeter also than syrup
or honey from the comb.

R. Lord, you have the words of everlasting life.

Second Reading I Corinthians 1:22-25

Brothers and sisters: Jews demand signs and Greeks look for wisdom, but we proclaim Christ crucified, a stumbling block to Jews and foolishness to Gentiles, but to those who are called, Jews and Greeks alike, Christ the power of God and the wisdom of God. For the foolishness of God is wiser than human wisdom, and the weakness of God is stronger than human strength.

Gospel Verse

R. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ, King of endless glory!

God so loved the world that he gave his only Son,
so that everyone who believes in him might have eternal life.

R. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ, King of endless glory!

Gospel John 2:13-25

Since the Passover of the Jews was near, Jesus went up to Jerusalem. He found in the temple area those who sold oxen, sheep, and doves, as well as the money changers seated there. He made a whip out of cords and drove them all out of the temple area, with the sheep and oxen, and spilled the coins of the money changers and overturned their tables, and to those who sold doves he said, “Take these out of here, and stop making my Father’s house a marketplace.” His disciples recalled the words of Scripture, Zeal for your house will consume me. At this the Jews answered and said to him, “What sign can you show us for doing this?” Jesus answered and said to them, “Destroy this temple and in three days I will raise it up.” The Jews said, “This temple has been under construction for forty-six years, and you will raise it up in three days?” But he was speaking about the temple of his body. Therefore, when he was raised from the dead, his disciples remembered that he had said this, and they came to believe the Scripture and the word Jesus had spoken.

While he was in Jerusalem for the feast of Passover, many began to believe in his name when they saw the signs he was doing. But Jesus would not trust himself to them because he knew them all, and did not need anyone to testify about human nature. He himself understood it well.

Prayer to St. Michael the Archangel

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil.

May God rebuke him, we humbly pray and do thou O Prince of the Heavenly Host by the power of God cast into hell, satan and the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruins of souls. Amen.

Outdoor Parish Easter Egg Hunt -
March 28th after the 11 a.m. Mass
(Rain Date will be April 11th, same time)

This year, we are organizing an outdoor Easter Egg Hunt for families at the Parish. This is a safe, socially distant way for everyone to get together and have some fun! The hunt will be held on March 28th after the 11 a.m. Mass on the church grounds. Children will be able to search for eggs with their age group (1-4 years, 5-8 years, 9+ years). Eggs will be pre-filled with candy. If you are interested in joining, please sign-up your family on the sheet at the back of the church. We will be planning to provide a light pre-packaged meal outdoors, so we will need final numbers by March 21st! On the day of the hunt, please remember to bring your own basket and a suggested donation of $3 per family if you're able, to offset costs of the event. God bless you during this Lenten and Easter season!

Thank you to everyone who sent me a birthday card or message for my birthday this year on March 1st! I am truly humbled, honored, and excited to be here at OLV, and I can't tell you how thankful I am for your support and prayers.
 God Bless you

The Book of the Month - March

The book of the month for March will be Rediscover Jesus: An Invitation by Matthew Kelly. This book is an enjoyable, easy-to-read, and challenging look at our hearts and the person of Jesus from one of the best presenters, writers, and speakers around. If you've never read or heard of Matthew Kelly before, it will be a great introduction to his style and impact but also is just as powerful for those who are familiar with him as well. As we continue with the Book of the Month for one aspect of faith formation at our parish, please realize that you can come and go as you please with these books and with the Zoom call summary/discussion at the end of the each month as well. To be a part of the Zoom call, where I will summarize the book and highlight my favorite parts, simply email myself or Tracy to be put on the email list for the future. Once you are on the list, you will receive an email with further details as the end of the month approaches. Thank you, and God Bless you!
