ADULT SUNDAY SCHOOL

Adult Education Opportunities

Starting in August you will notice that there are three options for adult Sunday School on the back of the Footprints insert. I would like to take a poll on what people seem more interested in for an initial class for adults (this will include high schoolers who are considered adults in our church and confirmation students are recommended to join as well). Our three options are: Understanding the O.L.F., Walking through the Bible, and Enneagram Workshop.

Understanding the Order of Lutheran Franciscans. This class will take us four weeks to complete. It will be a discussion based class that focuses on the Evangelical Counsels and worship practices of the OLF. The Evangelical counsels are: Poverty, Obedience, and Chastity. We will read from the General Rule of the O.L.F. and then discuss what this means to us personally, as a church, in our families, and as a community. We will then have a final class that discusses the importance of worship, prayer, penitence, work, and vocation. I know it seems like a lot to cover in one last class but we will be able to cover them quite painlessly. You will be able to read an introduction and background from Brother Ryan as our guest writer in this Newsletter. My hope is that through this course I will also be able to field any questions or concerns you may be holding onto or harboring about having a new Lutheran Pastor who is taking vows in a Franciscan Order.

Walking through the Bible. This opportunity will be focused around the synods Bible study. We will read and discuss the passages of the day, and potentially the week prior, as we journey through the gospels. This is a wonderful opportunity for us to connect more personally with the stories of Jesus, familiarize ourselves with the bible, as-well-as have an opportunity for discussion and questions with me! Through this conversation we can listen to our fellow members, and Pastor, as to how different parables have impacted our lives and resonate with us in the 21st century.

Enneagram Workshop. Now this one is quite new to many people and you may be sitting there thinking, "What is an Enneagram?" The Enneagram is a nine tier spiritual typing system to aid us in not only our understanding of ourselves, those around us, and our relationship with those around us, but also our spiritual journey and relationship with God. In more simple terms it is a spiritual Myers Briggs. Although it is by no means as simplistic as Myers Briggs, it does help us understand ourselves better. This enneagram Workshop will take us through the book Mirror for the Soul: A Christian Guide to Enneagram by Alice Fryling. This book is a great jumping off point to understand the Enneagram and we will be taking it one chapter a week for a total of 12 weeks. If this becomes something of high interest for our congregation, I not only have more enneagram books that we could do together, but we could look at hosting a workshop with spiritual directors who work with the enneagram and, help not only ministers but lay members, understand the ways that we are called into holy living with God.

I look forward to seeing what the majority interest is and after this class we will revisit and discuss what other options may be of high interest as we go forward!

Your brother in Christ,
Pastor Tucker

Order of Lutheran Franciscans

Following the Simple Way of St. Francis

Hello, First Evangelical Lutheran Church! I am Brother Ryan W. Roberts, OLF, the Minister Provincial for the Eastern Province of the Order of Lutheran Franciscans, meaning that I am the primary organizing officer for our order east of the Mississippi River. Pastor Tucker asked me to write to you to share a bit about our order on the eve of his imminent profession of vows in the first week of August. There's much to say, and as Pastor Tucker progresses in his formation, he'll be able to answer more of your questions, but he asked me as his more experienced sibling to help build a common foundation for y'all.

The Order of Lutheran Franciscans (OLF) is the first religious order in the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America (ELCA). We follow in a much longer tradition, however, drawing on the experience of the Order of Ecumenical Franciscans (formed in 1983) and over a century of Franciscans in the Scandinavian Lutheran churches and the Anglican communion. We also walk in a path trailblazed by the Deaconess Community of the ELCA, a group in our own church committed to a common way of life for well over a century. Franciscans in general have a much longer history, of course, tracing our roots back to Saints Francis and Clare of Assisi in the 13th century in central Italy. While we follow the simple way of these famous saints who lived as part of the Roman Catholic church, we are also deeply grounded in our Lutheran traditions. I summarize the OLF walk this way: I think about God with Lutheran theology, and I experience God with Franciscan spirituality. As Lutherans, we are called to be "always reforming", a life that fits seamlessly with the Franciscan charism to "rebuild God's church".

As part of this rebuilding, we participate in ecumenical coalitions and prophetic organizations. We have representation on the Joint Committee for Franciscan Unity and the Franciscan Federation. We are sponsors of the Franciscan Action Network, a partner with our own ELCA Advocacy offices. We are a Reconciling in Christ community and an endorsing partner of the Poor People's Campaign. We also rebuild the Church by living as a fully equal family of siblings. We are an undifferentiated order composed of siblings of any gender, any ministry and occupation (religious or secular), all of whom can serve our siblings in any role of leadership.

Pastor Tucker has been invited to profess vows as a novice at our annual gathering this year, known as a chapter. The vows we profess are ancient and known collectively as the Evangelical Counsels: obedience, chastity, and poverty. While it takes a lifetime to fully encounter these vows, they can be expressed in (imperfect) brief thoughts. Poverty is a life of simplicity

As Lutherans, we are called to be "always reforming", a life that fits seamlessly with the Franciscan charism to "rebuild God's church".

without allegiance or attachment to possessions. Obedience is the openness to be joyfully formed by the wisdom of others. Chastity is the commitment to love all, without distinction, according to the form of relationship with each. This last one, of course, gives many hearers pause, because they are most familiar with "chastity" meaning "abstinence", and while that does fall under the umbrella of chastity, it is an expansive concept of love that others live out faithfully with partners and even children. This year, Pastor Tucker will be professing his initial novice vows, ones that he will be invited to renew annually for at least five years during his novitiate formation.

The OLF isn't just for those who take vows, though. In calling soon-to-be-Brother Tucker as your Minister of Word and Sacrament, you are now in relationship with the order. That could be a simple fact of your life, or one that inspires further curiosity. You could have conversation with your pastor, visit our website (lutheranfranciscans.org), or even become a Friend of the Order. When it becomes available, you could stay at our brand new motherhouse in Houston, St. Francis of the City, and spend a week serving the multicultural community gathered in its neighborhoods. I invite you deeper into relationship with Jesus through the window that has been opened in your congregation. May you be blessed by this new strand of connection, just as we are blessed by your presence in this church always under construction.

Brother Ryan W. Roberts, OLF,
Minister Provincial for the Eastern Province of the Order of Lutheran Franciscans

What Does Our Logo Mean?

Our logo—with the cross, water and a white lily—identifies women of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America as children of God; baptized, forgiven, adopted into God's family, full of grace and hope in eternal life. It is a reminder of the growth, beauty, and vitality that rises out of that life-giving baptismal water.

It is also a reminder of the mission of the church to "Go, therefore, make disciples of all nations; baptize them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit" (Matthew 28:19).

NORTHWEST OHIO WOMEN OF THE ELCA 2023 GATHERING

Here I Am Lord

The 2023 Gathering will be held Friday and Saturday, October 27 and 28 at the Findlay Inn, Findlay, Ohio. A prayer booklet is being put together to be given out at the gathering. If you would like to submit a favorite prayer to be included please send it to Sonlight Editor, Elaine Conley at canread78@yahoo.com by September 1,

Please include credit if taken from another author/book. An in-kind offering of new underwear for men, women and children will be collected which will be given to the Orphan Grain Train, based in Napoleon, Ohio. Cost for the two days is $80 (does not include hotel). If you are interested in attending please contact Marilyn Dunn for a registration form. The registration deadline is September 25.

L.I.F.T. will meet on Tuesday, August 15 at 11:45. Please take note of the time change; starting 15 minutes later will allow for those who want to attend the 11:30 Sacred Daily in the church chapel. Bring your brown bag lunch and an item that you collect for a show and tell. Please contact Sue DeMoss at 419-306-9994 or Marilyn Dunn 419-722-8543 for more information or if you need a ride.

The 2023 Flower Chart is up in the hallway, across from the church office. There are many Sundays that still need flowers to brighten not only the altar, but also either your home or the home of a shut-in. Please consider this ministry as a way to share God's love for His people.

Happy Summer from the Social Ministry Committee!

A great big thank you to the generosity of First's members!

Last summer First Lutheran Church began participating in Kroger's Community Rewards program. Thanks to you we were able to designate over $200 for military care packages. If you haven't had the chance to designate First Lutheran in your Kroger shopper card, see a member of the Social Ministry committee.

The Noisy offering coffers grew to $300 and our committee designated LCC (Lutheran Church Charities) K-9 Comfort Dogs as the beneficiary.

The committee also voted to assist LSS with their portion of the new sign on Londonderry, which advertises St. John's Lutheran Church, the NWOS Synod office, and Lutheran Social Services

You have probably already heard about First's participation in the 2023 Habitat for Humanity Apostle build. First has partnered with Trinity Findlay and Trinity Arcadia for financial support of the build on N Cory street. We're excited to be helping with foundation work on August 15. All are welcome for Raise the Wall day on August 26 at 8am. The beam you've hopefully signed will be installed in the house and home dedication is planned for September 30 at 9am. Many things to do for Habitat for Humanity:

- Sign up today to work on the home. We still need workers
- Habitat Board – please sign the board that will be placed in the home that is part of the Apostle Build. It is not an obligation to work on the build. Signing the board is just to add a blessing for the home and the family and a reminder that God will be with them always as they enjoy their new home.
- Watch for a food sign-up sheet for lunch, and snack items.

Happy August from the Worship and Music Committee!!

At our last meeting we discussed helping Pastor Tucker learn the member's names by using nametags on the first Sunday of the month of August and September. We will provide nametags in the Gathering Area, and we would like you to write your name and wear them for the two services. This way Pastor Tucker can associate our faces with our names. This will also help all of us as we welcome each other as we share the peace.

We also would like to bring greeters back to our services. Our ushers do a fabulous job greeting people, but it is also nice to have people in the Gathering Area who can help guests and visitors know where to enter for the service. More smiles the better!! A list for the Sundays will be put on the bulletin board for you to sign up. This is a lovely way to greet worshipers and welcome them to the Lord's House. Thank you all in advance!!

We are always looking for new members for our committee. We are a busy committee as we handle all the sub-committees dealing with our worship services, such as bread bakers, Altar Guild, ushers, Deacons, decorating the church for Easter and Christmas, and much more. We are a fun group and meet just once a month usually on the first Monday at 6:30 in the Library. Please come and join us!!! Our next meeting is August 7th.

School supplies and school clothes on the shelves, "Stuff the Bus" box at church, teachers' meetings...August is upon us. Happy birthday to all you Leos out there (Pastor Tucker and me included). Let me describe a Leo - confident, comfortable being the center of attention, ambitious, loyal, fiercely protective of his/her nearest and dearest, generous, sunny. Hard-headed, resolute, and rock-steady perspective. Now, I don't hold to horoscopes or signs of the Zodiac...however, every single Leo I have ever met fits the above description. Just saying. 😊

Been reading enthusiastically this past month. First off, for the HBG reading group, the four of us tackled This Isn't Going to End Well by Daniel Wallace, who writes an account of his brother-in-law who was Wallace's boyhood hero. Trying to understand the man's later life, Wallace reads his hero's journals and learns more than he ever should have known. The controversy in the club's discussion centered around his right to publish parts of those journals. Wallace had promised the hero's wife that he would destroy them, then promptly snuck them out and read them before he destroyed them. One Club member stated "I am burning my journals!"

I read An Island Out of Time by Tom Horton, a non-fiction book suggested by the church book club's reading of the novel The Invisible Husband of Frick Island by Colleen Oakley. The Frick Island has no available technology aside from one phone. The same was true of the Smith Island that exists in Chesapeake. An Island... written in 2008 covers the church, the food, the kinds of people, the traditions, and ancestors of the real space. By the way, a DNR study conducted in 2008 reported that Smith Island is expected to completely erode by 2100 because of the rising sea levels, if no action is taken.

The Solace of Open Spaces by Gretel Ehrlich is a collection of essays on the open space of Wyoming. (I first heard of the book when Erin and Frank Reagan

"Summer's lease
hath all too short
a date."

William Shakespeare,

quoted from it on "Blue Bloods") The author follows a journalism assignment after the man she loved died of a terminal illness. She learns to shepherd, explores the land - the wide-open spaces. Her conclusion, which truly oversimplifies, is "true solace is finding none; it is to say, it is everywhere."

Then, for some unknown reason at this time, I have begun reading accounts of some who have hiked the big trails. The Trail by Ethan Gallogly chronicles the hike of a young man and his dead father's hiking buddy. They hike the John Muir Trail in California, a length of 211 miles with an elevation change of 47,000 feet. The trail, which honors John Muir, an early naturalist and conservationist, covers the Sierra Nevada Mountain range, passing through Yosemite, Kings Canyon and Sequoia National Parks. The journey includes some very wise observations on life.

And then there is The Last Hike by Lee Lovelace, all about the trail I dreamed of hiking, and that is the Appalachian Trail. A mammoth undertaking is hiking the 2190+ miles. About one in four of those who start actually complete the trail. The southern terminus is at Springer Mountain, Georgia; the northern terminus at Mount Katahdin, Maine. The hardest climb of the AT is Katahdin for it is the greatest sustained ascent on the AT with steep boulders and ledges above tree line. If you have a chance, check out websites. Even the pictures are breathtaking.

Paul and I used to hike many trails. Our honeymoon included day hiking through the White Mountains in Vermont and the Adirondacks in New York. (My limit was usually 12 miles a day.) And then one vacation centered in Virginia in and around the Damascus/ Abingdon area. We day hiked several times on the AT. It was a dream come true. Why don't we hike so much anymore?...let's just say 8 grandchildren are a lot of fun, too.

God bless and Keep Reading!

STEWARDSHIP

IS HEART WORK!

Heartwarming stories of ministry through your generous stewardship!

Carol and I are not able to enter into the congregation's life as much as we would like to do due to Carol's health needs. Thank goodness for seasonal evening worship services which enable us to fellowship spiritually with you. While our limitations restrict the joy of giving, except for our offerings, when I think of stewardship at this stage of our lives, we are blessed with your stewardship, that is your caregiving to us.

As the saying goes, let me count the ways. We have been surprised on more than one Sunday or Monday with our doorbell's ringing and a church member's giving us a beautiful bouquet of flowers from the altar. How we baby those flowers—keeping them watered and removing the dead ones so that the beauty of that bouquet, symbolizing the congregation's care for us, lasts as long as possible. Then too, our hearts have been warmed when we learned that we were included in the prayers of a congregation's prayer group at times of our special needs. Besides the flowers and prayers, we have received offerings of help. To date we are managing rather well, but there may come a time, as in each of our lives, when we are not so much the caregiver as the care-receiver.

Thank you for giving me the opportunity to share. Carol joins me in wanting you to know that YOU are important and that, while you might think what you do is small, it is important in perpetuating what Jesus came to do—that we all may have abundant life. - Milt and Carol Peters

Heartwarming stories of ministry through your generous stewardship!

Toledo Campus Ministry is an ecumenical campus ministry sitting on four residential lots adjacent to the University of Toledo. Established in 1967 at UT, for the purpose of counseling, programming, and building community among UT students, TCM has a long history of facilitating resources to the university, church and community relative to the critical issues of the time. The four pillars of TCM's mission are: nurturing community, deepening spirituality, serving through love, and healing holistically. Rev. Amy Remaklus is leader. Pastor Kristin Hunsinger of Hope Lutheran in Toledo is Vice President of the Board. Several members of Hope participate in this ministry.

Joseph has moved in!

Our new house manager, Joseph, a first-year graduate student in the Industrial Engineering program, comes to us all the way from Andhra Pradesh, India. He loves God and is thankful for God's unconditional love and amazing grace. He is most excited to serve God through his work at TCM, keep in fellowship with God's people, and participate in TCM's many activities.

"I wonder if you would like to know more about what is going on at Toledo Campus Ministry, as it serves as the home base for ecumenical ministry, including Lutheran, Methodist, Presbyterian, UCC, Jehovah's Witness, Episcopal, Baptist, and SBNR students?" (from Pastor Remaklus) We at TCM emphasize care of the mind, body, and soul. Thus, our community is developed around activity, conversation, fellowship, and spiritual growth.

Toledo Campus Ministry

Nurturing authentic community
 Deepening spirituality
 Serving in love
 Healing holistically

As the only ecumenical, intergenerational Christian ministry at UT and in its vicinity, TCM's community development strategy is unique. Taking to heart Christ's call to love our neighbors widely and our God without restraint (Matthew 22:36-40), TCM offers programming for all Christians of any denomination, invites participation and leadership of all ages and abilities *Luke 18: 15-17), welcome all students, including the oft neglected nontraditional student (Luke 18: 35-43), and creates space for interfaith dialogue and service (Micah 6:8; Galatians 5:14).
