

Discipline Policy

There are two classes of offenses, A and B. Class A offenses are major violations that may result in immediate expulsion from the activity. Class B offenses are lesser infractions that may result in the assessment of lesser disciplinary action, commensurate with the offense. The Cadet and Senior Staff reserve the right to adjudicate and enforce any and all offenses and the Squadron Commander's decision is final in case of any dispute.

Class A Offenses

Include but are not limited to:

1. Possession or use of alcohol, tobacco products, drugs or weapons of any kind.
2. Possession of pornography in any form.
3. Willful damage or theft of Government, CAP, or private property.
4. Fighting.
5. Gambling.
6. Honor Code violations (lying, cheating or stealing).
7. Flagrantly unsafe acts.
8. Improper sexual contact or other gross immorality.
9. Gross neglect of duty.
10. Being AWOL from any scheduled activity.
11. Any Class B offense committed under aggravated circumstances, such as repeated misconduct of the same sort.

Class B Offenses

Include but are not limited to:

1. Public displays of affection.
2. Sleeping on duty.
3. Insubordination or disrespect to cadet or senior NCOs/officers.
4. Absent from bed during bed check.
5. Creating a disturbance.
6. Late to class/formation.
7. Disrespect to the National Colors (American flag).
8. Use of obscenity or profanity.
9. Being in areas off limits to cadets.
10. Improper/sloppy uniform or personal appearance.
11. Cleanliness of training areas and facilities not being maintained.
12. Conduct unbecoming of a cadet contrary to the prejudice of good order and discipline.