

Consul General Maria Andrelita S. Austria Calls on South Korea's Consul General Gunn Kim in Vancouver

24 July 2018, Vancouver - Consul General Maria Andrelita S. Austria poses with Consul General Gunn Kim of the South Korean Consulate General in Vancouver during her courtesy call at his office. Koreans number about 70,000 in Vancouver and comprise one of the larger visible minority groups in Canada.

Consul General Kim demonstrates to Consul General Austria how to set up the wooden phone/tablet holder which he presented to the latter as a token, after which they shared accounts of common acquaintances and experiences as political officers of their respective foreign service.
