

NATIONALLY

God transforms injustice NATIONALLY by training, equipping and sending men and women to underserved locations in the United States to implement the transformation process

Part I

Through a season of constant on-site prayer, the powers of darkness that have been allowed to control that particular area are bound with God's Word.

Part II

The community is then equipped on how to pray. Leaders are identified and equipped to assume the leadership role of prayer for their community.

Part III

Community established resources are identified and connected with the community leaders. Their partnership brings appropriate resources to the affected community.
