Eligibility Information

Family Peer Support Worker are primary caregivers who have “lived-experience” of being actively involved in raising a child who experiences emotional, behavioral, mental health and/or substance use challenges. This includes young people with neurobiological differences as well as those diagnosed with a serious emotional disorder or substance abuse disorder. Family Peer Support Workers have experience navigating child-serving systems and have received specialized training to empower other families who are raising children with similar experiences. Specific requirements include:

- Successful completion of a 40 hour training program
- 18 years of age or older
- Valid New Mexico mailing address
- Valid New Mexico Driver’s License
- High school diploma or GED
- Parent or other family member of a child or youth who has received a diagnosis of Serious Emotional Disturbance and has received mental health and/or substance use treatment and support services.
- Ability to manage your own well being
